TO OUR UNKNOWN

MADAM,

SINCE we are not permitted to know You, but only by Your good Works, You cannot be offended with this publick Acknowledgment of the great Good You have done, and the good Example You have given, in an Age abandoned to all the profane and idle Ways of squandering Estates and Riches, without the least Dread of an Account to be given for such Talents received and abused.

Your commendable Zeal to restore and promote the knowledge and Love of the Bible at a Time, when this Sacred Book is attacked by Infidels, and too much neglected by Christians, will, one would hope, be imitated at least by all such as consider, that the Christian Religion at first, and afterwards the Reformation, which we all pretend to value, were carried on, and established, by publishing and dispersing the Scriptures in the Language of every Nation.— And indeed it is to be suspected, that many of those,

* An unknown PERSON, who, within these few Years, had laid out very considerable Sums of Money, in purchasing Bibles, and other Books of Devotion and Piety, for the Use of the People committed to the Care of the Author of these Sheets.

those, who now set themselves so industriously to revile the Revelations and Doctrines of the Gospel, are in the Service of that Church, which denies Christians the free Use of the Bible.

If this excellent kind of Charity has suffered in the Opinion of some, when they have not found the wished-for Effects of distributing good Books amongst the common People; it is much to be feared, that this has been too often occasioned by those, who have had the Part of distributing them: For it will be found—That the best of Books, when lightly given, will be lightly valued, and as lightly made use of.

This, I hope, Madam, has in some measure been prevented by your Almoners; who have taken Care to give some suitable Advice, and Instructions how to make Use of your Charity to the Purposes of a Christian Life.

I have often considered, and found by experience, that there is no Way so likely to influence the Lives of Christians—To inspire young People with a Sense of Religion; —To keep them from Backsliding; and to secure, if possible, the growing Age from the sad Contagion of the present, as by leading them very early to an Ordinance, in which all the Means of Grace and Salvation are exhibited to their View, and in order to which they are always required to consider their Ways; —To renew their Purposes of Obedience; —And to beg those Graces which are necessary to fit them for Heaven and Happiness.—I have therefore in the following Prayers, endeavoured to make this holy Ordinance, and the Duties required, as plain as may be to the meanest Capacity.

And I hope, I have taken Care, as on one hand not to flatter Sinners; so on the other,

The Epistle Dedicatory.

not to fill the Minds of young People with unnecessary Fears and Scruples, or with the Difficulties of a due Preparation, with respect to a Duty which ought to be the Practice of their whole Lives: As if no Person ought to go to this Sacrament, but such as are as perfect as ever they hope to be.

I have therefore, in these short Devotions, consulted both the Capacities and Tempers of Young Communicants, for whose Use this is chiefly intended, who are apt to be impatient, and weary of longer Prayers.

And I would hope, that the Specimen of Devotions before and after the Communion, will not only answer that End, but be of Use to lead Christians to make proper Reflections, when they read, or hear the Scriptures read at other Times: —For want of which, these holy Writings are too often read and heard without any great Benefit, and without affecting the Minds, or influencing the Lives, of those that hear them daily.

Having observed, with Concern, how often People distract themselves with turning to other Books of Devotions, when they should attend to the publick Service of the Church; to prevent this, I have added the whole Communion-Service, with such short Observations, Prayers, Ejaculations, &c. as may be proper to help devout Minds, without diverting them from the Duty they are about.

And the Observations upon the Rubricks, upon the Commandments, and Warnings, &c. which should be consulted at home, will be of use to shew those of our Communion, how well the Church has provided for the Instruction, Edification, and Salvation of all her Members.

In short, there is nothing wanting to make this holy Ordinance to be revered and received by all Persons, and upon all Occasions, with a true Understanding of its Meaning, and the Blessings annexed to it: Where this End is in any good measure attained, either by this, or any other Books on the Subject, God will be greatly glorified; which is the great End intended by the following Sheets, and prayed for by,

M A D A M,

Your affectionate Friend, and

Servant in Jesus Christ,

Intended for the Use and Benefit of Young Communicants.

S E C T. I.

T H E R E are two Holy Ordinances or Sacraments, appointed by Jesus Christ as most especial Means of obtaining Grace and Salvation; which no Christian, who hopes to be saved, must wilfully neglect. — These are BAPTISM, and the LORD'S SUPPER.

It must be supposed, that you have already been made Partaker of the former of these. — viz. BAPTISM, by which you were admitted into the Congregation of Christ's Flock, — were restored to the Favour of God,—and had the Holy Spirit communicated to you, for a Principle of a new and spiritual Life; in order to awaken you, and to direct and assist that natural Reason, with which God has endued all Mankind.

But forasmuch as you have done many Things contrary to the Promise made in your Name, when you were baptized,—and will stand in need of greater Degrees of Grace and Assistance, to enable you to resist the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, and to do your Duty in that State of Life, unto which the Providence of God shall call you:—You are therefore now called upon to become a Partaker of the other Sacrament,—That of the LORD'S SUPPER; by which, upon your sincere Repentance, you may obtain the Pardon of all your past Sins, and such other Graces as you stand in need of, to bring you to eternal Life and Happiness.

Take care therefore, that you understand what you are called to as well as you are able, and God will expect no more.

For, if you go to the Lord's Supper without considering the Reason of that Ordinance, and the very great Concern you have in it,—without seeing the Necessity and Blessing of a Redeemer, you will go with Indifference, and consequently return without such Benefit as you might otherwise hope for.

To prevent this, you should seriously consider what Account the Holy Scriptures have given us of the Condition we are in, both with respect to this Life, and the Life which is to come.

That is,——That we are by Nature Sinners; that, as such, God cannot take Pleasure in us: — And that if we die, before we are restored to his Favour, we shall be separated from him, and be miserable for ever.

This will lead you to inquire, how the Nature of Man came to be thus disordered, and prone to Evil: for you must not imagine, that God, who is infinitely good, created Man in such a State of Corruption, as you now see and feel him to be in; but that he must have fallen into this wretched Condition, since he came out of the Hands of his Creator.

And so the Scripture informs us.— In the third Chapter of Genesis, we have this following Account of the State of Man, Before, and After the Fall.

That Adam and Eve, from whom sprang all Mankind, were created in the Image of God; that is, holy and innocent, cent, having a perfect Knowledge of their Duty; a Command of their Will and Affections; and a Power, through the Grace of God, to do what they saw fit to be done.

In this Condition they were placed in Paradise, in a State of Trial, with a Promise of immortal Life and Happiness, if they should continue to Fear, to Love, to Honour, and *Obe*y their Creator; and with an exprefs Warning of the dreadful Consequence of their Disobedience.

Notwithstanding which Warning, they, through the Temptation of the Devil, transgressed the Commands of God; and by doing so, they did not only forfeit all Right to the Promise of eternal Life and Happiness, but also contracted such a Blindness in the Understanding, such a Disorder in their Will and Affections, as all their Posterity feel to their Sorrow; and became subject to Sin, and the Punishment thereof, which is Misery and Death.

Concerning the Nature and Greatness of this Sin, we are to judge of it by the Greatness of the Punishment inflicted upon them and their Posterity:

—For God being infinitely Just and Holy, could not inflict a Punishment greater than their Sin deserved.

Now

Now, this was the Occasion of that universal Corruption and Wickedness, which you see and hear of in the World, and which you cannot but, in some measure, feel in your own Nature:—For, as the Scripture informs us, Gen. v. 3. Adam begat his Children in his own Likeness; that is, with such a depraved Nature as his was then become.

And now consider into what a sad Condition those unhappy Offenders had brought themselves, and remember that this is your own Condition, and the Condition of all their Posterity.

The Law of Nature and Reason was still in Force, and could not possibly be dispensed with.—At the same Time they found by sad Experience, That, as St. Paul describes the fallen State of Man, there was a Law in their Members warring against the Law of their Mind; so that the Good which they would, they did not; but the Evil that they would not, that they did. Rom. viii.

There could not be a condition more deplorable than this:—To live only to contract evil Habits; and by doing so,—To increase their Guilt,—To displease their Creator,—and, To leave an Offspring as miserable as themselves.

This

Now

This therefore gave occasion to God to manifest another of his most glorious Perfections, that is, his infinite Goodness and Mercy.

For, God foreseeing this lamentable Condition, into which they had fallen by departing from their Obedience, his Goodness had provided such a Remedy, as that neither they, nor any of their Posterity, should, on account of their Fall, be eternally miserable, except through their own Fault.

He, therefore, in Consideration of a Redeemer, one of the Seed of the Woman, who should make full Satisfaction to the Divine Justice for their Transgressions, and who should bruise the Head, or break the Power, of that Serpent, (the Devil) which had tempted them to Sin;—In Consideration of this promised Seed, God entered into a New Covenant with them by Way of Remedy, for what was past, and could not be undone.

We have Reason to believe, that this New Covenant was more fully explained to Adam, than is set down in this short Account given us by Moses, and as it is more fully explained in the Gospel; which was to this Purpose:—That on Condition of their sincere Repentance, and sincere Obedience afterwards

wards, they should be restored to the Favour of God: and after Death, to that Life and Happiness, which in their State of Innocence was promised to them without tasting of Death; which Favour they had forfeited by their Disobedience.

And when we consider, that our first Parents, now become Sinners, stood in need of an Atonement, without which, while under the Displeasure of God, their very Lives must be a Burthen; and it being decreed by God, as it afterwards appeared, that without shedding of Blood there was to be no Remission of Sin; i. e. without the Death of the Sinner, or some one in his stead: We do therefore conclude, that, at this time, God did appoint Sacrifices, or Sin Offerings, to make an Atonement for the Soul, and to foreshew the Sacrifice of Jesus Christ, (which we now commemorate) until he should be offered in behalf of them and all their Posterity.

And this appears from what follows in the next Chapter of Genesis, where we find Abel, by Faith, (that is, believing and depending upon this Ordinance of God, for the Remission of Sins, until the promised Redeemer should come; we find him) offering a Sacrifice

Sacrifice which was acceptable to God, that is a Sin Offering, which his Brother not doing, was rejected.

But here take notice and remember, that these Sacrifices could not take away Sin, but only through Obedience to the Ordinance of God, and through Faith in the promised Seed.

They were indeed very instructive and proper to lead Sinners to repentance, and Amendment of Life, when they saw, that their Sins could not be forgiven, but by the Death of an innocent Creature, bleeding and dying before their Eyes, to make an Atonement for their Sins.

And as all good Men, before the Coming of Christ, did most religiously keep up the Remembrance of the promised Seed, and obtained the Pardon of their Sins, and Acceptance with God, upon offering Sacrifices through Faith in a Redeemer which was to come;—
So all Christians, since the Coming of that Redeemer, are obliged, as they hope for Pardon, and Favour from God, to keep up the Remembrance of God's great Mercy, in sending us a Redeemer, and what that Redeemer hath done to save us; and this in the Manner which He himself hath ordained.

Now,

Now that you may be more sensible of, and thankful to God for, this his infinite Loving-kindness, and that you may be fully convinced of the Necessity and Blessing of a Redeemer, you ought to know and consider, that our Saviour and Redeemer came not, *until Man had been tried in all Conditions,—*IN A STATE OF INNOCENCE,—UNDER THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS OWN REASON,—and UNDER THE LAW GIVEN BY MOSES:—All which Methods of Providence, thro' the perverse Will of Man, had been rendered ineffectual for the Amendment of the World.—Notwithstanding which, such was the Goodness of God, that He sent, after all, his only beloved Son, to take our Nature upon him, and to assure Mankind of the tender Love, which he had for his poor Creatures who were ruining themselves, without perceiving the Danger they were in.

This was the Promised Seed!—Promised to Adam, as He that should break the Serpent's Head, or Power of the Devil:—Promised to Abraham, as He, in whom all the Nations of the Earth should be blessed:—Promised to the People of Israel, as that Prophet whom they should hear and obey at their Peril:—Lastly, promised to Da- vid, as one whose Kingdom should have no End.——And indeed it was with this Promise that God supported the Spirits of all that feared him, and were in Fear for themselves, until the Fullness of the Time for his Appearance should come.
vid,

And now this Promised Redeemer being come, He first shewed by his own Example, recorded in the Gospel, how Men must live so as to please God.—And the Law of Nature, as well as the Law of Moses, having thro' Sin been much obscured and perverted, he explained them, and gave us such other Laws and Rules, as were absolutely necessary to amend our Nature,—to restore us to the Image of God,—to keep us from Backsliding, and to fit us for Heaven and Happiness.

And because in the Decrees of God, as was before observed, without shedding of Blood there could be no Remission of Sin; —and it being impossible that the Blood or Life of any other Creature, or of any mortal Man, could take away the Guilt and Punishment due to Sin; our gracious God, both to give Mankind the greatest Token of his Love, and at the same time, to shew how great his Hatred to Sin is, by the Greatness of the Punishment it required, to the Lord's Supper.

He

II

He sent his own Son to be the Propitiation for our Sins; that is to make Satisfaction to his Justice, and to take off the just Displeasure which he had declared against Sinners.

And his Son, (blessed for ever be his Goodness!) knowing how dreadfully sad the Condition would be of all such, who should live and die under the Displeasure of God, and what unconceivable Happiness they would deprive themselves of, moved with Compassion for so great a Calamity, undertook to obtain their Pardon.——

In order to this, he cloathed himself with our Flesh, that, as Man, He might suffer what our Sins had deserved, and, as He was the Son of God, might make a full and suitable Satisfaction to the Divine Justice, by offering himself a Sacrifice for the Sins of the whole World: And for the Joy of delivering so many Millions of Souls from Misery, he endured the Death of the Cross, and all the Afflictions leading to it, which we find recorded in the Gospel.

By this worthy Sacrifice, all Mankind are restored to the Favour of God, and put into a Way and State of Salvation; God having, for his Son's sake, promised to pardon all who shall repent, and forsake their Sins, and bring forth Fruits meet for Repentance;—To give his Holy Spirit to all such as shall sincerely desire him;—and, lastly, to make them eternally happy after Death, if, during this short State of Trial, which is designed to amend our corrupt and disordered Nature, they endeavour to observe the Rules he has given them, which are absolutely necessary to make them capable of Heaven and Happiness.

Stop here a while—and adore the infinite Goodness of God, who did not overlook lost Mankind, but sent his Son to redeem us.

He might, in strict Justice, have required Men to have lived up to the Law of Nature and Reason given in the State of Innocence, on Pain of being for ever separated from his Presence: But instead of that, He has been graciously pleased to accept of our sincere, tho' imperfect Obedience, and of nor sincere Repentance, when we have done amiss, and return to our Duty.

Consider this seriously:—And you cannot but express your Thankfulness after some such manner as this.

The

The P R A Y E R.

Blessed! for ever blessed be God, for this Instance of his Love to fallen Mankind, in committing the miserable Case of his unhappy Creatures to no less a Person than his own Son! —We are not worthy of all the Mercies thou hast shewed thy Servants.— Grant, O God, that this wonderful Love may not be lost upon me: But that, knowing my sad Condition by Nature, I may be fully convinced of the Necessity and Blessing of a Redeemer; and that I may, with a Heart full of Gratitude, join with thy Church in giving our devouteſt Thanks to Thee, and in keeping up the Remembrance of what thy blessed Son hath done and suffered for us; to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all Honour, Praise and Thanksgiving, for ever and ever. Amen.

SECT. II. The End and Institution of the Lord's Supper.

ST. Paul concludes his first Epistle to the Corinthians, with this remarkable Direction;—If any Man love not the Lord Jesus, let him be Anathema Maranatha;

Maranatha; that is,—Let him be separated from your Communion, as one under the Displeasure of God, and, without a timely Repentance, in no Possibility of being saved;—Nothing being more grievous in the Sight of God, than for a Sinner to slight the greatest Instance of his Mercy that was ever offered to Man, as well as the only Means of his Salvation.

To prevent this, and to hinder Sinners from forgetting [which they are but too apt to do] this Token of God's infinite Love, and to fix the Love of Jesus Christ more surely in our Hearts and Memory, He himself hath taken care, that his Love and Mercy should, throughout all Generations, be remembered: He did therefore ordain this Sacrament as a Memorial of our Redemption, and of his Love for us;—as a Pledge to assure us of it; and as an outward Means and Sign of testifying, as well as increasing, our Love to him.

The holy Apostles of Christ, who were present when he first administered this Sacrament, give us the following Account of its End and Institution.

They signify to us in the first Place, that this Sacrament was ordained by Christ the same Night in which he was betrayed, betrayed, and after they had observed the Passover, which had been ordained to preserve the Memory of their great Deliverance from the Bondage of Egypt, and which did prefigure, and was a Prophecy of, a much greater Deliverance, which Jesus Christ was to be the Author of, not only for them, but for all Mankind:—Which Prophecy was surprizingly fulfilled by that People, without knowing what they were doing, when they crucified Jesus Christ, the true Paschal Lamb, the very same Month, the very same Day of the Month, and the very same Hour of the Day, that the Paschal Lamb was first ordained to be sacrificed.

Now, after the Paschal Supper, as the Apostles relate it.—Jesus Christ took Bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to his Disciples, saying, Take, eat: This is my Body; which is given for you: This do in Remembrance of Me. He took also the Cup, and gave Thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this, for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the Remission of Sins: This do, as oft as ye shall drink it, in Remembrance of Me; for as oft as ye shall eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, ye do shew the Lord's Death till he come.

In

In Obedience therefore to this Command of Jesus Christ, who has delivered us from a much greater Bondage than that of Egypt,——The Christian Church keeps up the Memory of his Love, his Sacrifice, his Sufferings and Death, after this solemn Manner :

First, as an Acknowledgment that our Lives and all that we eat or drink to preserve them, are owing to the Bounty of God, we present upon his Table, by the Hands of his own Minister, a Portion of his Creatures, the best we have for the Support and Comfort of our natural Life, namely, Bread and Wine.——After this, the Bread and Wine are consecrated, the Bread is broken, and the Wine poured out, to represent the Death of Christ, whose Body was broken, and whose Blood was shed for us. *

Then the Minister of GOD, as the Steward of Christ's Household, applies these Blessings to every Person, who receives this Sacrament, in this devout Prayer :—The Body and Blood of Christ, which were given and shed for Thee, preserve thy Body and Soul unto everlasting Life.

And we may be assured of it, that this Sacrament will be to every worthy Communicant, what the Tree of Life

would

would have been unto Adam and Eve in Paradise: And that as they, had they continued obedient, would have been in no Danger of temporal Death; even so we, while we feed on this Bread now endued with a Life-giving Spirit, and live as we ought to do, are in no Danger of Death eternal:

These being Pledges to assure us, that as certainly as Bread and Wine do nourish our Bodies, so do those seal to us all the Benefits which Jesus Christ hath purchased for us, by his Sacrifice and Death.

And when any Christian does wilfully, and for want of Faith, deprive himself of this Spiritual Food, he falls, as our first Parents did, into a State purely natural, and destitute of the Means of Grace and Salvation.

For the Happiness of the World, and of every Soul in it, depends upon the Sacrifice of Christ, of which we are bound to keep up the Remembrance after this solemn Manner:

That whenever we pray for any Favour or Blessing, we may remember to do it in his Name:—That whenever we are so unhappy as to have done any Thing which may displease God, we may remember to pray to be forgiven for Christ's Sake.

For God will grant whatever we ask, provided it is for our Good, when we ask in Faith, that is, in his Son's Name; therefore the Church concludes all her Prayers in these most prevailing Words,—For Jesus Christ's Sake.

In one Word, we do by this Sacrament keep up a continual Correspondence with our Lord in Heaven, and hold Communion with him, and with all the Members of his Body, which receive Nourishment and Growth from Him, as the Branches from the Tree, in which they are grafted, and from which when they are separated, they can bear no Fruit, and are only fit to be burned.

And as every Christian is obliged, at the Peril of his Soul, to observe it: So the Duty must be such, as every one, even the most unlearned, may understand, if it is not his own Fault.

And so indeed it is: For as an Israelite, Levit. i. 4. under the Law, being obliged to lay his Hand upon the Head of his Sacrifice, confessing his Sins in laying them as it were, upon that Creature,—as he did easily understand, that this was to shew him, that Death was the due Reward of Sin; that this ought to humble him before God, and to give him him the greatest Abhorrence of Sin, which could not be pardoned but by the Loss of the Life of an innocent Creature:—As this was plain to the meanest Israelite, even so the most unlearned Christian, when he considers, that our Lord Jesus Christ became a Sacrifice for us, and that on him all our Sins were laid,——on him who knew no Sin;——he will easily understand how sad our Condition was, which required such a Sacrifice: That this therefore ought to humble us,—To lead us to Repentance,—To make us fearful of offending God,—And to abhor those Sins which cost Jesus Christ his Life; before God could be prevailed with to pardon them.

He will also easily understand, that the Love of Christ, and the Remembrance of his Death, ought to be very dear to us; and that the oftener we remember it, in the Manner he ordained, the more Graces we shall receive from God.—The firmer will be our Faith, the surer our Pardon, and the more comfortable our Hopes of meeting Him, not as an Enemy, but as a Friend, at whose Table we have been so often entertained.

And now, if you have considered what you have read with any degree of Attention, you will pause a while,—until you have expressed your Gratitude for this Mercy, after some such Manner as this.

The P R A Y E R.

O J E S U S, who hast loved us, hast washed us from our Sins, and purchased us by thy own Blood,—and didst ordain this Sacrament, in order to secure us to thyself, by a grateful Remembrance of what thou hast done and suffered for us, make me truly sensible of thy Love, and of our sad Condition, which did require such a Sacrifice.

May I always receive this Pledge of thy Love,—The Offers of Mercy, Pardon and Grace, tendered to us, in this holy Ordinance, with a thankful Heart, and in Remembrance of Thee our great and best Benefactor: in Remembrance of thy holy Example,—Of thy Heavenly Doctrine,—Of thy laborious Life,—Of thy bitter Passion and Death,—Of thy glorious Resurrection,—Of thy Ascension into Heaven,—and of thy Coming again to judge the World.

And may I never forget the Obligations thou hast laid upon us, to live as becomes thy Disciples, and to forsake every every Course of Life contrary to thy Gospel!—Cease not, O Lord, to love us: and by the Grace vouchsafed in this holy Ordinance, cause us to love Thee with all our Hearts. Amen.

S E C T. III. How a Christian ought to prepare himself for this Sacrament.

AS the above Account of this holy Ordinance is easy to be understood even by the most unlearned Christian; so the Preparation required is such, as will neither puzzle the Understanding, nor burden the Memory, nor take up too much of the Time even of those that are engaged in the most necessary Employments of Life.

The Church had regard to all her Members, when she gave this short and plain Direction to such, as prepare to go to the Lord's Supper.

That they examine themselves,
Whether they repent them truly of their former Sins?

Whether they stedfastly purpose to lead a new Life?

Whether they have a lively faith in God's Mercy thro' Christ?

Whether they have a thankful Remembrance of his Death? And,

Whether they be in Charity with all Men.

Now, forasmuch as all Christians, who are capable of examining their Consciences, are bound, as they hope for Salvation through Christ, to go to this Sacrament: And because young People are often at a Loss how to examine themselves upon these several heads: ——— Here follow a few plain Directions, which they, that can read, should read with Care; and they that cannot, if they, have a true Concern for themselves, should find some good Christian, who will be glad to read to them, and do thereby a Work which must be well pleasing to God.

The FIRST HEAD, on which you are to examine yourself, is concerning your REPENTANCE.

BY what you have already heard concerning the Fall of Man, you understand how all Men became subject and prone to Sin; and you cannot but feel it to be so by sad Experience. We are assured also, and this by the Spirit of God, that without a sincere Repentance no Man must hope to be saved.

Now,

Now, by Repentance you are to understand a Man's condemning himself, for having done any Thing displeasing to God; — either such Things as God has forbidden, to keep us from ruining ourselves, or by omitting such Duties as he has commanded, in order to fit us for Happiness when we die.

So that if either the Fear of God's Displeasure, or a Love of Him, who has been so good to you, will weigh with you, you will most heartily condemn yourself for every Thing you have done contrary to his Will and Command.

You will also beg of him most earnestly to forgive you what is past, and you will promise and resolve, through his Grace and Help, not wilfully to offend him again.

And lastly, you will not forget to pray for his Grace every Day of your Life, without which your best Resolutions will come to Nothing.

This is that Repentance, concerning which you are required to examine yourself before you go to the Lord's Supper.

Most People, 'tis true, are ready to own that they are Sinners, and cry, Lord, forgive us; and this too often

Whether they be in Charity with all Men.

Now, forasmuch as all Christians, who are capable of examining their Consciences, are bound, as they hope for Salvation through Christ, to go to this Sacrament: And because young People are often at a Loss how to examine themselves upon these several heads: ————— Here follow a few plain Directions, which they, that can read, should read with Care; and they that cannot, if they, have a true Concern for themselves, should find some good Christian, who will be glad to read to them, and do thereby a Work which must be well pleasing to God.

The FIRST HEAD, on which you are to examine yourself, is concerning your REPENTANCE.

BY what you have already heard concerning the Fall of Man, you understand how all Men became subject and prone to Sin; and you cannot but feel it to be so by sad Experience. We are assured also, and this by the Spirit of God, that without a sincere Repentance no Man must hope to be saved.

Now,

Now, by Repentance you are to understand a Man's condemning himself, for having done any Thing displeasing to God; — either such Things as God has forbidden, to keep us from ruining ourselves, or by omitting such Duties as he has commanded, in order to fit us for Happiness when we die.

So that if either the Fear of God's Displeasure, or a Love of Him, who has been so good to you, will weigh with you, you will most heartily condemn yourself for every Thing you have done contrary to his Will and Command.

You will also beg of him most earnestly to forgive you what is past, and you will promise and resolve, through his Grace and Help, not wilfully to offend him again.

And lastly, you will not forget to pray for his Grace every Day of your Life, without which your best Resolutions will come to Nothing.

This is that Repentance, concerning which you are required to examine yourself before you go to the Lord's Supper.

Most People, 'tis true, are ready to own that they are Sinners, and cry, Lord, forgive us; and this too often without any great Concern, or Purposes of Amendment.

But this you will not think sufficient, when you seriously consider, that the End and Punishment of Sin are not to be seen in this Life.

If therefore you stand in any Fear of the Judgment of God, set yourself seriously to consider your past Life; see whether you have lived, or do now live, in any known Sin, or evil Habit Of Lying,——for Example;——or Swearing,——or Drinking,——or filthy Talking;—Of Uncleanness,—Of keeping loose and profane Company,—Of following unwarrantable Pleasures and Diversions, or of leading an idle, useless, sinful Life.

If this hath been, or is, your Case, resolve to break off all these, and all such-like evil Ways, which are displeasing to God; condemn yourself for having so desperately broke the Commands of one, who can destroy both Body and Soul in Hell—Consider the Vows that are upon you,—and despise not the Goodness and Forbearance of God, which is designed to lead you to Repentance.

If you ask when you are to begin this necessary Work, (if it is not already begun) the Answer is short:—The very Moment

Moment you ask the Question;—and this, because, if you find an Unwillingness in yourself to set about it now, that Unwillingness will every Day increase; Very probably you will never repent, unless God by his Judgments, or by the Sight of Death, shews you your sad Error, when it may be too late to be of any real Use to you.

Now, if these Considerations affect your Heart, as sure they will, if you have any Regard for your Salvation, represent your Desires to God in some such Words as these.

THE P R A Y E R.

Blessed be God, who by his Grace, and by the Voice of his Church hath called me to Repentance! Discover to me, O thou Searcher of Hearts, the Charge that is against me, that I may know, and confess, and forsake, the Sins I have fallen into—Give me that true Repentance, to which thou hast promised Mercy and Pardon, that I may amend where I have done amiss, and that Iniquity may not be my Ruin.—And, O blessed Advocate, who ever livest to make Intercession for us, I beg to put my Cause into thy Hands; let thy Blood and Merits plead for me, and by thy mighty Intercession procure for me the Pardon of my past Offences:—That thou mayest say unto me, as thou didst unto the Penitent in the Gospel,—Thy Sins are forgiven;—that so I may go with a quiet Conscience to thy holy Table. Amen.
and

SECT. IV. Concerning the Purposes you are to make of leading a New, that is, a CHRISTIAN, Life.

IN the first Place, take especial Notice, that God accepts of our Repentance on this Condition only, that we may afterwards glorify him by an Holy Christian Life.

And as he delivered the People of Israel from Bondage, not that they might do what was right in their own Eyes, but that, becoming an holy Nation, they might be an Honour to their Deliverer,—Deut. xix. 5.—Even so Christ hath redeemed us from the Bondage of Sin and Satan, that he might redeem us from this present evil World, and purify unto himself a People zealous of good Works.

And as the former perished, that is, all such as did not answer the End of their Deliverance, so most surely shall we do, if we do not obey our Redeemer.

Your Duty to God, your Neighbour, and Yourself, you have known from a Child:—Be assured of it, you will meet with Temptations from the Devil, the World, and your own corrupt Heart, both to neglect and transgress the Commands of God.

It will be absolutely necessary therefore, that you arm yourself betimes, both with holy Resolutions, and with this holy Ordinance, which you are preparing to go to, that you may be able, through the Grace of God, to go on in the Way of Salvation.

Now, your Duty to God is,—To Believe in him, to Fear, and Love Him, with all your Heart and Soul; forasmuch as you stand indebted to him for all you have, or value, or hope for, in this or the next Life.

Do but consider how you would behave yourself, if you were but half so much obliged to any Man on Earth;—How dearly would you love him?—How often would you think of him?—How often would you strive to please him?—How would you be grieved, if you should be so unhappy as to offend him?—How soon and earnestly would would you beg his Pardon to be restored to his Favour?

Now, if you thus love God, it will appear in such Instances as these: You will have a very great Regard for every Thing that belongs to him.——You will not use his Name to any idle or wicked Purpose.——You will religiously observe the Day consecrated to his Honour and Service.——You will carefully attend the House and Worship of God;—And behave yourself with Reverence and Devotion while you are in his Presence.—You will hear his Word with Attention, and have a great Regard for his Ordinances, and for the Persons whom he hath appointed to administer them.

If you truly fear God, you will part with any Thing as dear as a right Hand or a right Eye, rather than provoke Him, who can destroy both Body and Soul in Hell.

If you believe Him to be the Fountain of all Good, you will pray to Him daily.——And if you put your whole Trust in God, as it is your Duty to do,——you will endeavour to be pleased with all his Dealings with you.—You will never murmur at the Ways of his Providence, nor suffer your Heart to fret against the Lord.——And especially ally you will never attempt to better or secure your Condition by any evil Ways;—Believing assuredly, that God can and will make you full Amends in the next Life, for what you want or suffer in this, in Submission to his Will.

Lastly, your Duty is to be thankful to God——The Way to be so, is to look upon every Mercy you receive as the Gift of God;—Every Danger you escape, as owing to his Care and Providence;—Every good Thought every good Purpose, every Occasion of doing Good, as the Effect of his good Spirit.

Think, and act, and purpose thus.—And it will be as natural to thank God for all the Dispensations of his Providence, as it is for you to beg any Blessing from him, which you stand most in need of.

Stop a while——until you have considered these Things, and until you have expressed your Sense of them in the following Prayer.

THE PRAYER.

THIS is indeed the first and great Command, To love thee, O God, with all our Heart; for on this depends
our

our Salvation. But even this must be the Gift of thy Grace:—For this Grace I now apply to Thee to make my Love and Fear of Thee the governing Principle of my whole Life:—That I may always do what I believe will please Thee:—That I may carefully avoid what I know will offend Thee:—And that I may live as having Thee the constant Witness of my Thoughts, Words and Actions.

Give me a stedfast Faith in thy Word and Promises; a firm Trust in thy Power.—Let the Fear of thy Justice keep me from Presumption, and a Sense of thy Goodness from Despair—Defend me from all those bewitching Snares which destroy our Love for Thee; from worldly Cares; from all sensual and sinful Pleasures; from Evil Company; from foolish Diversions, and from every Thing that may make me forget, that Thou alone art worthy to be feared and loved: Grant me these Mercies for thy Son Jesus Christ his Sake;—whose Love and Death we are going to commemorate. Amen.

S E C T. V. Your Duty to your NEIGHBOUR and YOURSELF.

THIS is the second great Command, and will require the most solemn Resolutions you can make before you go to the Lord's Supper.

Consider therefore whether you can sincerely resolve as follows.

I dare not, I will not, be indifferent
how I lead my Life.—I know what God has commanded me, and I purpose sincerely to do it.

I will, in the first Place, be obedient to the lawful Commands of my Superiors, and especially to those who watch for my Soul.—I do sincerely purpose in all my Dealings to remember the Command given me by my Saviour.—Thou shalt love thy Neighbour as thyself——

And therefore I will make a Conscience of doing the least Wrong to any Man;—of using any Deceit, or Fraud, or Oppression; or of taking Advantage of the Ignorance, Mistakes, or Necessity of my Neighbour; knowing assuredly, that he who wrongs his Neighbour does the greatest Injury to himself.—And if at any time I am convinced, that I have done him any Wrong, I will make him Satisfaction,

as far as I am able, without being forced by Law,—To do unto others what I would they should do to me.

To this End, I will endeavour to live peaceably and charitably with all People,—avoiding all Malice, and Revenge, and Evil Speaking, and Contention, as much as possibly I can.—And I will speak the Truth at all Times: and especially when I am called to my Oath, whether it be for or against my worldly Interest.

AS TO THE DUTY I OWE TO MYSELF,—I am convinced, that—my first and great Concern ought to be,—To take Care of my Soul.

I do therefore stedfastly purpose to lead a serious Life, as one under the Sentence of Death ought to do,—To be Sober, Temperate, and Chaste; that, when I die, I may be admitted into the Paradise of God, where no unclean Thing must enter.

To this End, I resolve to keep a Watch over myself, that I may avoid all such Company, such Pleasures and Diversions, as may make me lose the Remembrance of Death, and the Account I must give.

I will endeavour to be content with my Condition, not coveting what is another Man's neither envying the Prosperity,

Prosperity, nor taking Pleasure in the Calamities, of my Neighbour.

And forasmuch as a Life of Idleness and Luxury is hateful to God, I will strive to do my Duty in the State of Life, in which his Providence has placed me; not flattering myself; that I do no Evil, when I do no Good in my Generation,—lest the Sentence upon the unfruitful Tree be passed upon me, —Cut it down, why cumbereth it the Ground?

These Duties I will endeavour to perform, as a Proof of the Love and Reverence I bear to God, who is so good as to accept of my Repentance, and a sincere, tho' imperfect Obedience.

And if thro' Weakness, Temptation, or sudden Surprise, I shall be so unhappy as to forget any of these Resolutions, and fall into Sin, I will, as soon as I perceive it, beg God's Pardon, and be more careful for the Time to come.

Now, if your Conscience can witness for you, that you piously purpose to live after this Manner, you may safely go to the Lord's Table, and the Blessing of God will certainly attend you.

Go no farther till you have considered these Purposes again; for they are to be the Purposes of your whole Life, and of every Day of your Life.—

And then address yourself to God.— that thro' his gracious Assistance, they may make the most lasting Impression upon your Mind.

The PRAYER.

GRacious God, who hast given us Precepts, and an Example to walk by, let the Remembrance of them be always seasonably present with me.— Give me Grace to practise them conscientiously,—To reverence my Betters, and all that are in Authority,— and especially such as are ordained to pray for, and to bless us in thy Name.— Let my Love for Thee, and for my Neighbour, keep me from all Acts of Injustice, or Injury to his Body, or good Name:—Let me never wilfully vex or trouble him;—Never covet what is his, or envy his Prosperity,— May I ever be ready to help and comfort all such as are in Distress.— Give me Grace to be faithful in all Things committed to my Trust:—That I may never pervert Truth and Justice;— never propagate Slander, or raise evil Reports, nor ever tempt others to Sin.— Give me the Spirit of Temperance
and

and Chastity, and grant that I may never provoke Thee by any Instance of Uncleanness, to shut me out of Heaven, where no unclean Thing can enter.—Give me Grace so to order my Conversation, that I may encourage others to live as becomes the Gospel of Jesus Christ; for whose sake I beg to be heard. Amen.

S E C T. VI. The next Thing you are to inquire into is, whether you have A LIVELY FAITH IN GOD'S MERCY THRO' CHRIST.

NOW, because so very much depends upon our having such a Faith,—the Holy Ghost hath given us all the Arguments,—all the Assurance,—that our Hearts can desire.

God so loved the World that he spared not his own Son, (saith the Apostle) but gave him up for us all,—Rom. viii. 32.—Can there be a greater, a surer Pledge of the Love of God for his poor Creatures?—He made him to be Sin (that is a Sin-offering): He delivered him to Death in our Stead:—Can we, after this, doubt of, or distrust the Mercy of God?

Observe the Method St. Paul takes to confirm our Faith, by giving us the strongest Proofs of our Acceptance with God.—God, saith he, commended his Love to us, in that, while we were Enemies, we were reconciled to Him,—by the Death of his Son.—Much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his Life,—Rom. v. 10.—What may we not, after this, hope for from God?

In short, Jesus Christ hath redeemed us from the Curse of the Law.—Through him we have Peace with God.—Rom. v. 1.—This is the only Foundation of our Faith, our Hope, and Confidence.—He is our Sacrifice, our Mediator, our Advocate; the Knowledge of which ought to remove all Occasions of Despair and Fear, from the Displeasure of God.

Indeed, if we should attempt to go to God, without an Interest in Christ, we could hope for Nothing but to be rejected; but when we go to Him, as redeemed by His own Son,—and represent to Him, as we do in this Holy Sacrament, what He has done and suffered for us, we approach Him, as intirely reconciled to us.

But then you must remember, that he gave Himself for us, and hath redeemed us from the Power of the Devil, for this End, that He might purify unto himself himself a People consecrated to His Service.—Consecrate therefore yourself to Jesus Christ, and, with faithful Abraham, stagger not at the Promises of God; but go to this Sacrament with a full Assurance of Faith, that God will pardon your Sins, and give you all the Graces you shall stand in need of.—Only remember, that this Faith itself is the Gift of God, and must be prayed for, for Christ's sake; which you may do after this Manner:

The PRAYER.

I Beseech Thee, O God, by that Love which moved Thee to give Thine own Son for lost Mankind, to give me a Faith in Thy Promises for His sake, as firm as Thy Word, on which my Faith is grounded:—And let me never presume upon Thy gracious Promises, without sincerely endeavouring to perform the Conditions, on which they were made, and without being zealous of good Works, for which we were redeemed.

May the Remembrance of my Saviour's Love, and of Thy great Mercy be ever seasonably present with me, to keep me from Despair, and may my Faith in Thy Promises support me at the Hour of Death! May my Redeemer be my Refuge, His Blood and Merits plead for me, that I may have my Lot and Portion with those, whom he hath purchased with his most precious Blood! Amen. Amen.
the

S E C T. VII. Whether you have a thankful Remembrance of Christ's Death:—This is the next Thing you are to inquire into.

THIS will always bear some Proportion to the Sense you have of the Evil He hath delivered you from, and the Blessing He hath procured for you by His Death.

Consider therefore yourself as a poor, sinful, lost, undone Creature, without a Redeemer.—Consider what that Redeemer has done for you,—What He did, and what He suffered, when He took upon Himself to answer for the Sins of Men.

Consider that He was the Son of God, who had done no Wrong, neither was Guile found in His Mouth; notwithstanding this, being to answer for Sinners, He was treated and punished as a Sinner deserves to be:—He was despised!—Set at naught!—Persecuted and and rejected by His own People, whom he came to redeem !

He was betrayed by His own Disciple ; falsly accused ! — Unrighteously condemned ! — Unmercifully scourged ! Had a Murderer preferred before Him ! — Was crucified as a Malefactor ; and in the very midst of His Torments, most inhumanly reviled !

Consider the Reason of all this. — It was not only to satisfy the Justice of God for the Sins of Men, and procure their Pardon upon their Repentance and future Obedience ; but also to shew Mankind, what Treatment Sin and Sinners, who rebel against their Maker, do deserve ; — And teach us, when God orders or permits us Sinners to undergo such Indignities and Afflictions, in this our state of Trial, that we ought to take our Cross patiently, as our Redeemer did ; and be content, nay even pleased, to fulfil the Will of God, by following His Example in His Sufferings here, that we may be Partakers of His Glory in the Life to come.

In the next Place, consider the Blessings which Jesus Christ, by His Death hath obtained for us. He hath delivered us from that great Power the Devil had over Mankind, by procuring us Grace to resist and overcome him. —

He

He hath prevailed with God—To overlook the Untowardness of our Nature;—To pardon our greatest Offences upon our true Repentance:—And being by his Death reconciled to God, we have, for His sake, free Liberty to apply to Him, as Children to a Father, for what we stand in need of.

He hath also obtained for us the Assistance of an Almighty Spirit, to enable us to know, and to do, what is necessary to fit us for Heaven and Happiness;—And He hath prevailed with God, that these shall be our certain Portion, if we are not wanting to ourselves.—In one Word, Jesus Christ hath entirely freed us from all Fears of what may come hereafter, if it be not purely our own Fault.

The most unlearned Christian may know what is required of him.

The greatest Sinner may depend upon Pardon on his Repentance.

The weakest Christian may rely upon all necessary Assistance; and the meanest Christian is sure not to be overlooked.

By all which you may perceive what Thanks you owe to God, for your great and good Redeemer, and for what he has done and suffered for you.—

Which

Which you will do well to express in some such Manner as this :

P R A Y E R.

SUFFER me, O God, to present before thee, the infinite Blessings, by thy especial Favour, I am intitled to, through the Mediation and Passion of thy dear Son:—Add to this thy Favour, such a Retention as may keep me mindful of these Mercies;—And ever to be thankful for them;—In a Life of Obedience to thy Laws—I thank Thee, O God, for that Word, in which thou hast caused these thy Mercies, and his Example, to be recorded.—Make me truly sensible of that Love which brought him down from Heaven.—And how sad our Condition was, which required such a Sacrifice. — May I learn by his Patience, Humility, Self-denial, and Resignation, what Virtues are most acceptable to thy Divine Majesty!—And may I take him for my Lord, my Master, my Teacher, and Example, and dedicate myself to Thee, and to thy Service, for his sake. Amen.

S E C T. VIII. The last Inquiry you are to make, is, whether you are in Charity with all the World.

CONCERNING which, take especial Notice, that the two great Ends of this Ordinance mentioned in Scripture are ;——

The First, To keep up the Remembrance of Christ's Death till his coming again.——

The Second, To be a solemn Token of our Communion with Jesus Christ, and of our Union and Charity with all his Family.

To this End he hath ordained, that as all Christians, high and low, rich and poor, shall make up one Body, of which he is the Head:——and one Family, of which he is the Master:—So they should all eat at one Table, of one Bread, as a Sign of that Love, and Peace, and Friendship, and Readiness to help one another, as Occasion shall require, and as Members of the same Body will naturally do.

And indeed, your Acceptance with God will very much depend upon your hearty Good-will for every Christian, and for all Mankind.

Therefore you must take special Care, lest there be any Person with whom whom you are not at Peace ;—Whom you cannot forgive and pray for, and do him all the Good that can in Reason be expected from you ;——That you be disposed to make Satisfaction to any Person that has been injured by you, or who has taken just Offence at your Words or Actions, this being a Duty which Jesus Christ himself has commanded, Matth. v. 23. And that you be ready to forgive every Person who may have injured you, as you expect Forgiveness of God ;——Remembering the dreadful Sentence mentioned in Math. xviii. Thou wicked Servant, I forgave thee all thy Debt: Shouldst not thou have had Compassion on thy Fellow-servant, even as I had Pity on thee? And the Lord was wroth, and delivered him to the Tormentors.

And lastly, you are to take Care, that you love not in Word only, but in Deed and in Truth, that is, that you do Good, as well as give good Words, and shew a becoming Gratitude to your Redeemer, in being merciful to the Poor, for he hath declared, as much as ye have done it unto them, ye have done it unto me.

And believe it for a certain Truth, that a charitable and forgiving Temper is not near so beneficial to any One as to him that hath it ; it being more blessed to give, than to receive ; and to forgive, than to insist upon Satisfaction for Injuries and Wrongs done to us ; St. John xv. 12.

This being so necessary a Grace, you will not fail to beg of God most earnestly to vouchsafe it unto you.

The P R A Y E R.

THIS is my Commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you.—Hear, O my Soul, what thy Saviour hath commanded thee :—He who loved us, and gave himself an Offering and a Sacrifice to God for us.

May this Love, of my Redeemer, be the Motive and Pattern of my Love and Charity for all Mankind !——Where this hath not been my Practice, I implore thy gracious Pardon, and beseech Thee to fortify my Soul against all Suggestions of Satan, or my corrupt Nature, and blind Passions :—That I may always be prepared to go to thy Altar, with the same charitable Disposition, with which I desire and hope to die.

Thou, O Lord, madest thine Enemies thy Friends, by laying down thy Life for them.—Be thou my Advocate with God for the Assistance of his Divine

Divine Spirit to follow thy Heavenly Charity and Example, that I may overcome Evil with Good; that I and all the Members of thy Family may love as Brethren:—That we may always meet at thy Table as sincere Friends, and part with true Love and Affection as becomes thy Disciples. Amen.

S E C T. IX.

BY this Time you perceive the Reason of this Institution, the Necessity, as well as the invaluable Blessing of observing it religiously, and the Manner of preparing yourself for it, as often as you shall have an Opportunity.

And remember, that the oftener you look into the State of your Soul, in Order to go to this Ordinance, the less Trouble you will have to make your Peace with God, when you come to die; and the less Danger you will be in, of falling into a State of Sin and Inattention, which has been the Ruin of an infinite Number of Souls.

Besides this you will enjoy the greatest Comfort of Life, when you perceive that you are still growing in Grace, and tending to that Perfection which must fit you for Heaven.

On the other Hand, if you turn your Back upon this Ordinance, it must be on Account of your Unwillingness to understand your Duty, your Interest, and your Danger.

You have not considered, that there is no Pardon, no Grace, no Salvation to be hoped from God but by pleading the Merits of his Son's Death, in that he died that ye might be saved, which is given you, when you approach the Lord's Table.

And if you will consult your own Conscience, it will tell you, That some of these following are the true, tho' most wretched, Causes of your Contempt of this Command of your Saviour.

Either you live in some known Sin, or ungodly Way of Life, which you cannot resolve to forsake; Or, you are not willing to renew your Vows, made in Baptism;—Or, which is generally the Case,—You have no real Concern for your Soul; only you delude yourself with some faint Purposes and Hopes, that some Time or other you will become a new Man.

In the mean Time, you are guilty of a Sin too like the denying the Lord that bought you.—You bring an evil Report upon an Ordinance of Christ, as if it were not worth observing:—You harden

en wicked People in their Infidelity, and Neglect of their Salvation, by calling yourself a Christian, and living like an Heathen, in the Contempt of one of the greatest Means of Salvation: You live in a State in which all your Prayers, whether publick or private, whether for yourself or for others, will be rejected.

In short you provoke God every Day more and more to withdraw his Grace, —To leave you to your own corrupt Way of Living, till you have filled up the Measure of your Sins, and prepared yourself for a Sentence not to be heard without trembling.—I tell you that none of these Men that were bidden, shall taste of my Supper,—The Marriage Supper of the Lamb in Heaven.

How great then must the Sin of those be who neglect to administer, and of those who turn their Back upon this Ordinance, upon which our Salvation depends? It being the Blood of Christ which must cleanse us from all Sin,—
1 John i. 7.

MY Design in this, is not to encourage any one to go to the Lord's Supper without a Wedding garment, without a due Regard to the Duty.—For a Man may go so unworthily as to receive Judgment, instead of a Blessing.--For Example, Such as live in any known Sin unrepented of: Such as are not sincerely resolved to live, and be governed, by the known Laws of the Gospel;—Such as live at Variance with their Neighbours without being willing to be reconciled;—Such as have done Wrong, and will not make Satisfaction, as they are able:—Lastly, Such as go out of mere Custom, without considering the End or Benefit of this Ordinance, and return to their usual sinful Liberties, as soon as the Service is over.

All such ought to know, that they went unworthily; and if they have any true Concern for their Souls, they will consider their Ways, and turn to the Lord by a suitable Repentance, before they presume to go again to the Lord's Supper.

But then let them not, at the Peril of their Souls, deal deceitfully, and make this a Pretence of neglecting to go to this Ordinance for the future; lest they provoke God to leave them to themselves, which is one of the greatest Judgments that can befall them.

On the other Hand, let not any well-meaning Christian be discouraged with Fears of having gone unworthily to the Lord's

Lord's Supper, and so forbear, because they do not find all the Benefit and Change wrought in them which they hoped for; but let them consider, that a State of Holiness and Perfection is not to be expected at once, but by Degrees, and as we make good Use of the Favours, which the Holy Spirit from Time to Time vouchsafes us:

A good Christian, is not one, who has no Inclination to Sin, but one, who through the Grace of God immediately checks, and suffers not such Inclinations to grow into evil Habits.

God, who knows our Infirmities, will accept our sincere Endeavours, tho' attended with Imperfections and Backslidings, provided we condemn ourselves for them, and strive to amend.

And let us remember for our Comfort, that Jesus Christ himself pronounced all his Disciples (the Traitor excepted) to be clean, that is, qualified to receive this Sacrament, which he was going to administer to them, altho' he knew them to be subject to very great Failings and Infirmities: which soon appeared when they all forsook him, contrary to their solemn Promises; but this they repented of and were forgiven by their compassionate Redeemer.

If

If therefore you love God, and your Neighbour, tho' not so fervently as you could wish:—If you have a real Desire of being better, than at present you find yourself to be; If the Fruits of the Holy Spirit, tho' in a very low Degree, do appear in your Life;—Lastly, if you do daily pray for God's Grace, that you may, in his good Time, be and do what he would have you to be, and do not live in any known Sin;—By no Means forbear to go to his Ordinance as often as you have an Opportunity, and depend upon God's Blessing, and an Increase of his Grace.

The PRAYER.

GRANT, O God, that I may never draw down thy Judgments upon me, either by turning my Back upon this Ordinance, or by going to it with a headless Irreverence. May thy Mercy pardon what is past, and give me Grace for the time to come, to consecrate my Life to Thee, and to embrace every Occasion of remembering my Redeemer's Love, and thereby securing thy Favour and my own Salvation! And if it be thy Will, grant that I may always find such Comfort and Benefit in this Ordinance, as may encourage encourage me to celebrate it with Joy unto my Life's End.

Give me leave to recommend to thine infinite Mercy, the miserable Condition of all such as neglect so great Means of Grace and Salvation:—Awaken all Christian People into a Sense of this Duty:—Open their Eyes, and correct their Mistakes, that they may be convinced, that these are the only Means of making their Peace with Thee, and of rendering their Persons and their Prayers acceptable to thy Divine Majesty, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

S E C T. X.

EVERY well disposed Christian, after he has thus far prepared himself for this Sacrament, will endeavour to keep the Thoughts of his Duty, and the Blessings he hopes for, warm in his Heart until the Time of Receiving.

Some of the following Scriptures, and Meditations upon them, may, thro' God's Grace, answer that End; nor will they take up too much Time, because some or more of them, as Occasion offers, may be devoutly used in the Midst of Business.

And this Method of Devotion is here proposed, to lead Christians to make proper Reflections upon other Parts of Scripture which they read or hear.

Rev. iii. 17. Thou sayest, I am rich, and have Need of Nothing: and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

This is the sad Condition, to which, as Sinners, we are subject: and it is through thy Mercy, O God, any of us are sensible of it.--Preserve me, I beseech Thee, from that Blindness, which would hinder me from seeing my own Misery, and from that Pride, which would keep me from acknowledging it before Thee, who alone canst help me. O give me a true Sense of the Maladies I labour under, and help me for thy Mercies Sake, and for the Sake of Jesus Christ my Redeemer.

Psal. li. 17. The Sacrifice of God is a broken Spirit; a broken and a contrite Heart God will not despise.

But most unfit is mine to be presented to God, until I have obtained his Pardon for the many Sins, by which it hath been defiled.

Jer. iii. 12, 13. I am merciful, saith the Lord, and will not keep Anger for ever; only acknowledge thine Iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God.

I do acknowledge my Sin unto Thee O God, and my Iniquities will I not hide: I do therefore implore thy Pardon, and plead thy gracious Promise, with full Purpose of Heart, never again to return to my Sins.

Jer. xvii. 9. The Heart is deceitful, and desperately wicked; who can know it?

I cannot, indeed, answer for my own Heart; but there is no Work, O Lord, impossible with Thee: In Thee I do put my Trust, let me never be put to Confusion; Keep it ever in my Mind what an evil and bitter Thing it will be, to forsake the Lord.

1 John iii. 8. He that committeth Sin (who abandons himself to live in known Sin) is of the Devil,—is under his Power and Government.

Preserve me, gracious God, from so fatal a Blindness, to chuse Satan for my Lord and Governor, instead of thy Blessed Son, who laid down his Life to redeem us from the dreadful Tyranny of the Devil.

1 John ii. 25. This is the Promise that he hath promised us, eternal Life.

How infinitely good is God, to grant so great Encouragement to save ourselves from Ruin!—Give me, I beseech Thee, a firm Faith in this Promise, mise, that no Fears may terrify me, no Pleasures corrupt my Heart, no Difficulties discourage me from serving Thee.

Matt. xvi. 24. If any Man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his Cross and follow me.

O my Saviour! who pleasedst not thyself, but tookest upon Thee the Form of a Servant, let me not profess to follow Thee without endeavouring to follow the blessed Steps of thy most Holy Life.—Thy Patience, Meekness, and Humility: Thy great Disregard for the World, its Pleasures, Profits, and all its Idols:—Thy sensible Concern for the Miseries of Men:—Thy Unweariedness in doing Good:—Thy Constancy in Prayer, and Resignation to the Will of thy Father.—Let me part with any Thing as dear as a right Hand, or a right Eye, rather than not follow Thee in the faithful Practice of all Thy Commandments.

Mat. vi. 24. No Man can serve two Masters.—Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.

May I never set up any Rival, O God, with thee in the Possession of my Heart! May I never attempt to reconcile thy Service with that World, which is at Enmity with Thee! Give me, I beseech befeech Thee, the Eye of Faith, that I may see the World, what in Truth, it is ;—the Danger of its Riches,—The Folly of its Pleasures,—The Multitude of its Snares,——The Power of its Temptations,——Its deadly Poison, and certain Danger of drawing my Heart from the Love of Thee.

Matt. xxii. 37, 39. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy Heart,—And thy Neighbour as thy self.

O that the Love of God may be the Commanding Principle of my Soul ; and that I may have this comfortable Proof of his Love abiding in me, that I study to please him and to keep his Commandments !—That my Love to my Neighbour may be such as God hath commanded, that I may give and forgive, and love as becomes a Disciple of Jesus Christ !

1 John iii. 14. We know that we have passed from Death unto Life, because we love the Brethren.

What it is to love my Neighbour as myself, Thou, O Lord, hast taught me in thy holy Word :—Never to wrong or deceive him :—Never to grieve him, or without a Cause to create him Trouble ;—Never to treat him with Contempt and Scorn ;—Never to be pleased with his Misfortunes or Faults :—But to rejoice in his Happiness, and help him in his Wants.—Give me, I beseech thee, O Lord, a reasonable Hope of my having passed from Death unto Life.

Gal. iii. 13. Christ hath redeemed us from the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us;—that is, He was treated as one under the Curse of the Law, Deut. xxi. 23.

Blessed God, how great was our Misery? How great was thy Mercy? when Nothing could save us from Ruin, but the Death of thy Son! I see by this, how hateful Sin is to Thee.—Make it so to me, I beseech Thee.—May I never flatter myself, that thy Mercy will spare me, if I continue in Sin, when thou sparedst not thy own Son, who put himself in the Place of Sinners!—May I never provoke thy Justice!—May I never forget thy Mercies, and what thy Son hath done for me!

Tit, ii, 14. He gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all Iniquity, and purify unto himself a People zealous of good Works.

Blessed be God, that I was united to his People by Baptism! Grant, that I may never disgrace Thee, or my Christian Profession by an ungodly Life.—O Thou, who hast redeemed us from Sin

Sin and Death, cause me to understand, to value, and ever remember thy great Love, and to shew that I do so by a Life consecrated to thy Service.

Tim ii. 12. If we deny him, He also will deny us.

How many deny Thee, O Lord, without Thought, and without Dread! Do they know what they do, who lightly turn their Backs upon this Ordinance? Who make a Mock of Sin, which cost Thee thy Life?—Who are ashamed of Thee, and of thy Gospel, out of Regard to Men?—Who, by their unchristian Lives, do renounce thy Service?—Do they consider what it is to be denied by Thee?—What it is to have no Interest in thy Death, thy Merits and Mediation?—Gracious God, deliver me from this dreadful Sin and Judgment.

St. Math. xxvi. 35—Peter said, Tho' I should die with Thee, yet will I not deny Thee.

Preserve me, gracious Lord, from a presumptuous Opinion, and Dependence on my own Strength, without the Aids of thy Grace. Let me see, in this sad Instance, my Weakness without thy Assistance, and my Ruin without thy Help.

St. Luke xxii. 61, 62. And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter, and Peter remembered the Words of Christ,—and went out and wept bitterly.

O Lord, look upon me with the same Eye of Compassion, whenever I shall do amiss, that I may see my Fault, and forthwith return to my Duty:—Let this Instance be our Comfort since so great and repeated a Crime did not exclude this Penitent from thy Mercy; but let not this make us fearless of offending Thee, lest we never repent.

St. Luke xxii. 3, 4, 5. Then entered Satan into Judas, and he communed with the Chief Priests, how he might betray him unto them:—And they covenanted to give him Money, &c.

If I should provoke Thee, O God, by resisting thy Holy Spirit, to leave me to my own natural Corruption, and to the Power of Satan, I see, in this wretched Man, what Wickedness I am capable of.—Lord God, abandon me not to my own Choice: Shut my Heart against that Covetousness, which was the Root of so great a Sin. Keep me from presumptuous Sins lest they get the Dominion over me; and secure me under the Conduct of thy Holy Spirit, for Jesus Christ's sake.

Deut.

Deut xvi. 16, 17. They shall not appear before the Lord empty: every Man shall give as he is able, according to the Blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath given thee.

Shall I appear before thee, O God, worse than a Jew?——Can I give any thing to the poor, but what I have received from thee? How can I say that I love Thee much, if I give sparingly to them, whom thou hast appointed in thy Place to receive our Alms? Grant to me an Heart, O God, to give according to thy Blessing unto me, and as I expect thy Blessing on myself and Substance.

1 Pet. iv. 10. As every Man hath received the Gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good Stewards.

O God, who hast taught us, that we are all but thy Stewards, Keep me from that great Injustice of defrauding thy Poor of their Right: Give me Grace to moderate all my vain Desires and Expences, that I may have to give them that need, and that the Measure of thy Blessings to me may be the Measure of my Charity to others.

The ORDER for Administration of the LORD'S SUPPER.

INTRODUCTION.

THAT you may profit by the following Assistances, be advised to read the Communion Service, with the Directions and Meditations, some Time before you go to the Sacrament, that you may attend to every Part of the publick Service without Distraction.

Whenever you employ yourself in the Church, in your private Devotion, be careful that it is done in such a Manner, as not to disturb your fellow Communicants.

And instead of repeating the Prayers, and other Parts of the Service, after the Minister, as the Manner of some is, to the Disturbance of such as are near them; I would recommend your silently adding your AMEN, at the End of every Petition, and constantly using your Prayer-Book, this you will find the best Way to keep your Mind intent upon your Devotion, and from wandering from the Service.

If any Person, who is ordained to administer this Sacrament, shall think fit to cast his Eye upon this Book, I would beseech him to consider seriously, how many Communicants there are, who have no ordinary Way of coming to the Knowledge of this great Duty or of other Help to their Devotion, besides what the Church has provided for them in this Office; that therefore in Compassion to such, this Service ought to be performed with the greatest Deliberation as well as Devotion, that the Unlearned, who are generally the greatest Number, may be edified as well as instructed.
to

The ORDER for Administration of the LORD'S SUPPER.

First Rubrick.

Observations upon it.

Somany as intend to be Partakers of this holy Communion shall signify their Names to the Curate, at least some time the Day before.

ITis with great Reason that the Church has given this Order; therefore do not neglect it.

You will have the Comfort of knowing, either that your Pastor hath Nothing to say against you; Or if he has, you will have the Benefit of his Advice, and a Blessing will attend your Obedience to the Church's Orders.

Second Rubrick.

And if any of those be an open and notorious evil Liver, or have done any Wrong to his Neighbour by Word or Deed, so that the Congregation be thereby offended; the Curate having Third Rubrick.

The same Order shall the Curate use with those, between whom he perceiveth Malice and Hatred to reign; not suffering them to be Partakers of the Lord's Supper, until he knoweth them to be reconciled.

And if one of the Parties, so at Variance,

Observations.

The Lord's Supper being a Sacrament and Token of Reconciliation and Friendship with God and Man, such as will not forgive the Injuries they have received, nor make Satisfaction for those they have done to others, must not presume to go to the Lord's Table, lest they receive a Curse instead of a Blessing.

Fourth Rubrick.

Observations.

The Table at the Communion Time having a fair white Linen Cloth upon it, shall stand in the Body of the Church, or in the Chancel where Morning and Evening Prayers are appointed to be said; and the Priest standing at the North Side of the Table, shall say the Lord's Prayer with the Collect following, the People kneeling.

It may so happen, that you did not know, the Sacrament was to be administred, until you saw the Communion Table covered, however, if you have been a constant Communicant do not turn your Back upon the holy Ordinance: but say in your Heart,—I will most gladly accept of this blessed Occasion of remembering the Death of my Redeemer.

The COMMUNION SERVICE.

When the Minister begins, lay aside all other Books, and attend to the Service of the Church, than which there never was provided a better help to Devotion.

The Collect.

A Lmighty God,

Hearts be open, all Desires known, and
from whom no Secrets are hid; cleanse
the Thoughts of our Hearts by the Inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee,
and worthily magnify thy Holy Name,
thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Observations.

B Ecause the Love of God will make all his Commands easy, and to be obey'd with Chearfulness; we therefore beg of him to purify our Hearts by Faith, that we may love and fear him,
and keep his Commandments, upon which all our Happiness depends.

Priest, turning to the People, Rehearse distinctly all the Ten Commandments: and the People still kneeling, shall, after every Commandment, ask

Observations.

We see with what great Judgment these Commandments were appointed to be read in this Service, since by the Law is the Knowledge of Sin: and when we are convinced in our own Conscience, that we have not kept a Law

Good, we shall then see the NEED, and the BLESSING of a REDEEMER, and how earnestly we ought to beseech God, for his Sake, to have Mercy upon us, and to incline our Hearts to keep these Laws.

Observations and Directions.

THAT you may obey the following Commands of God with Chearfulness, you ought to be firmly persuaded.—That God, who standeth in no Need of our Obedience and Service, hath given us these Laws merely for our own Good, to restrain the Disorders we are subject to, and to hinder us from ruining ourselves.

Consider these Commands in this View, and as they are the Effect of the great Love of God for his poor Creatures; otherwise you will look upon them as a Burden, and obey them with an unwilling Mind.

Prepare therefore to hear them with an Attention and Reverence suitable to Him whose Commands they are; and then you will be more sensible what a Blessing it is, that Jesus Christ hath by his Death delivered us from the Curse and Punishment, due to those that break them;—having prevailed with God

God to accept of our Repentance, and enable us by his Grace to observe them better for the Time to come.

WHEN you consider how apt every Man is to have his Idols;—something which he admires, or loves, or fears, or trusts in or adores more than the God who made and redeemed him, you will see the Reason and the Necessity, of this Command; and will most heartily beg of God, to keep you from such Idolatry, and that you may love Him with all your Heart, and above all Things.

People.

Lord, have Mercy upon us, and write all these thy Laws in our Hearts, we beseech thee.

Observations.

Evil disposed People being capable of doing the greatest Mischief to the Estates, Reputations, and Lives of their Neighbours, by false Oaths, and lying Reports, God hath most mercifully consulted the Good of Mankind by a Law forbidding them at their Peril, to ruin themselves and others by such wicked Ways.

The Wisdom of God, and his Goodness to us, appears in this Command.—Laying a Restraint upon the very Desires of our Hearts, because this is the Source and Spring of all manner of Wickedness.

By this Law, he shews us, that all our Thoughts are known to, and will be judged by, him, at the great Day.

WHOEVER considers the sad Effects of Men's Disobedience to these Laws, in the Lives of Idolaters, common Swearers, Profaners of the Lord's Day, Undutiful Children, Rebellious Subjects, Murderers of Men's Lives and Reputations, Whoremongers, Thieves, perjured Waneesses, and covetous Persons, with the Judgments that attend them, will have Reason to

Then shall follow one of these two Collects for the King, the Priest standing as before and saying.

Observations upon this Rubrick.

So great are the Blessings of a righteous and peaceable Government, that we are commanded, in an especial Manner, to pray for Kings, and for all that are in Authority; for Them first, that remembering they are in the Place of God, they may endeavour to promote his Glory whom they represent, defend the Persons and Rights of Men, and punish Evil-doers according to the Tenor of these Laws; and secondly, for Ourselves; that we may obey our Governors out of a Principle of Conscience, and in Obedience to God.

Let us Pray.

A Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting, and Power infinite; have Mercy upon the whole Church, and so rule the Heart of thy chosen Servant GEORGE our King and Governor, that he (knowing whose Minister he is) may above all Things seek thy Honour and Glory; and that we, and all his Subjects, (duly considering whose Authority he hath) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in Thee, and for Thee, according to thy blessed Word and Ordinance, through Jesus Christ

Christ our Lord ; who with Thee, and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth ever one God, World without End. Amen.

Or,

Almighty and everlasting God, we are taught by thy holy Word, that the Hearts of Kings are in thy Rule and Governance, and that Thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to thy godly Wisdom ; we humbly beseech Thee so to dispose and govern the Heart of GEORGE, thy Servant, our King and Governor, that in all his Thoughts, Words, and Works, he may ever seek thy Honour and Glory, and study to preserve thy People committed to his Charge, in Wealth, Peace, and Godliness. Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's Sake Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I Believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth, and all Things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all Worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one Substance with the Father, by whom all Things were made: Who for us Men, and for our Salvation, came down from Heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin MARY, and was made Man, and was crucified also for us under PONTIUS PILATE. He suffered and was buried, and the third Day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the Right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with Glory to judge both the Quick and the Dead: Whose Kingdom shall have no End.

When the Minister giveth Warning for Celebration of the holy Communion, (which he shall always do upon the Sunday or some Holy-day immediately preceding), he shall read the following Exhortation at the Close of the Communion Service :

Dearly * beloved, on Sunday next, I purpose, through God's Assistance, to Administer to all such as shall be religiously and devoutly disposed,

Observations.

If you seriously attend to the following Exhortations or Warnings, you will learn what you ought to do, in order to be a worthy Communicant.

And you would do well to read them over again, when you return home, that you may fix them in your Memory, and that they may be a standing Rule to go by through your whole Life.

Believe it for a certain Truth, that such as are not religiously disposed to go to this Ordinance, are unqualified to ask or receive a Blessing or Favour from God.

That therefore you may lay hold of every Occasion offered you.—

Consider

* When it is considered how many poor Christians there are, who have little or no other Means of coming to the Knowledge of this Ordinance, and the Manner of preparing themselves for it, but by what they learn from hearing these Exhortations; every Pastor will think himself obliged in Conscience, and as he values the Edification of his Flock, to read these Exhortations with the greatest Deliberation, and with an Affection that shall engage the Attention of his Hearers.

posed, the most comfortable Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, to be by them received in Remembrance of his meritorious Cross and Passion, whereby alone we obtain Remission of our Sins, and are made Partakers of the Kingdom of Heaven. Wherefore it is our Duty to render most humble and hearty Thanks to Almighty God our Heavenly Father, for that he hath given his Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, not only to die for us, but also to be our spiritual Food and Sustainance in that holy Sacrament. Which being so divine and comfortable a Thing

Observations.

Consider seriously what you are called to.

First.—To obey an express Command of your Redeemer's, by whose Mediation alone you can hope for Salvation.

2dly, To testify to the World, that you belong to him, and to join with his Family, in order to recount and acknowledge the most inestimable Blessing which he hath purchased for those that diligently seek Him.

And, 3dly, To devote yourself to him, and to his Service, who is continually interceding for all such as go unto God by Him.

And very many will be the Benefits of embracing every Occasion that is offered you.

You will not easily fall into a State of Sin and Security, being so often put in Mind of the Danger of going carelessly and unprepared.

You

Thing to them who receive it worthily; and so dangerous to them that will presume to receive it unworthily; my Duty is to exhort you, in the mean Time, to consider the Dignity of that holy Mystery, and the great Peril of the unworthy Receiving thereof; and so to search and examine your own Consciences, and that not lightly, and after the manner of Dissemblers with God; but so that ye may come holy and clean to such an heavenly Feast, in the Marriage-Garment required by God in holy Scripture, and be received as worthy Partakers of that holy Table.

The

You hear in what a good Preparation consists:—In confessing your Sins to Almighty God, with full Purpose of Amendment of Life. —In exercising the Duties of Charity, in giving and forgiving, —&c.

All which being done in Obedience to the Command of Christ, must needs be acceptable to the Divine Majesty, and, in Time, gain you all those Graces, which you can desire or stand in need of.

And for your Comfort, remember, if you are prepared, as you ought to be, for this Sacrament, you are prepared for Death, and for a blessed Eternity.

I

Consider

Communion.

The Way and Means thereto is:

First, To examine your Lives and Conversations by the Rule of God's Commandments; and wherein-soever ye shall perceive yourselves to have offended, either by Will, Word, or Deed, there to bewail your own Sinfulness, and to confess yourselves to Almighty God; with full Purpose of Amendment of Life. And if ye shall perceive your Offences to be such as are not only against God, but also against your Neighbours, then ye shall reconcile yourselves unto them, being ready to make Restitution and Satisfaction, according to the uttermost of your Power, for all Injuries

Observations.

Consider, how many there are, who, to their Sorrow, are deprived of this Means of Grace and Salvation:—And how many, thro' a most stupid Ignorance and Negligence, deprive themselves of it. —And you cannot but give God Thanks, both for the Opportunities he affords you, and for the Graces he gives you, by your resolving to close with them.

But still take Care, that you go not with an evil Conscience; as Judas did; — with any bad Design or Malice in your Heart;—or while you live and resolve to die in any known Sin unrepented of:—Or,

Say therefore to yourself, Why am I so earnestly, so lovingly, invited? Why is my Pastor, why is the Church, so much concerned for my going to the Lord's Supper?—Is it not because she knows, this is the most acceptable Way of serving God, of securing his Favour, and my own Salvation?

Is it not, because she would have me to look into the State of my Soul, as I must do before I go to the Sacrament, that I may not live in the Way of Ruin, till I am surprized by Death, and utterly unprepared for the Account I must give?

Shall my Saviour's and his Minister's Love and Care, be lost upon me?—Is this the Way to shew my Thankfulness for the Mercies I hope to receive on Account of his Death?

When God calleth you, are ye not ashamed to say, you will not come? When ye should return to God, will ye excuse yourselves, and say, ye are not ready? Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of his great Mercy hath promised Forgiveness of Sins, to all them that with hearty Repentance, and true Faith, turn unto him; have Mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your Sins; confirm and strengthen you in all Goodness, and bring you to everlasting Life, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

T Herefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the Company of Heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praising Thee, and saying Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, Heaven and Earth are full of thy Glory. Glory be to Thee, O Lord, most High. Amen.

Proper Prefaces.
Upon Christmas
Day, and seven Days after.

These short Prayers following may be made use of in your private Devotions, either in Church or at Home.

BECAUSE thou didst give Jesus Christ thine only Son to be born at this Time for us, who by the Operation of the Holy Ghost, was made very Man of the Substance of the Virgin MARY his Mother, and that without Spot or Sin, to make

Form in me, O God, by the Power of the same Spirit, all the Graces and Virtues which thy Holy Son came to teach us, when he clothed himself with our Flesh; in order to restore us to thy Favour, and to fit us for Heaven.

A Lmighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of thy tender Mercy
didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer Death upon the Cross for our Redemption, who made there (by his one Oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect and sufficient Sacrifice, Oblation, and Satisfaction for the Sins
of the whole World; and didst institute, and in his Holy Gospel command us to continue a perpetual Remembrance of that his precious Death, until his Coming again; Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech Thee, and grant that we, receiving these thy Creatures of Bread and Wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy Institution, in Remembrance of his Death and Passion, may be Partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood: who in the same Night that he was betrayed, took

took Bread, and when he had given Thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his Disciples, saying, Take, eat: This is my body which is given for you; do this in Remembrance of me. Likewise after Supper he took the Cup; and when he had given Thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this: for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the Remission of Sins; Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in Remembrance of me. Amen.

Remember that no Posture can be too humble, when we are to receive a Pardon; and a Pardon, which must deliver us from Death eternal.

DEVOTIONS.

St. Luke xv. 2. The Pharisees murmured, saying, This Man receiveth Sinners, and eateth with them.

I Thank thee, O Lord, for this Instance of thy Charity to Sinners; I do indeed confess, I am one of that wretched Number; and do beseech thee to receive me, tho' a very unworthy Guest, that I may eat at thy Table, and be Partaker of thy Favour.

Math. xx. 32, 33. Jesus said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind Men said, Lord, that our Eyes may be opened.

O Lord, thou knowest the Desires of my Heart; for it is thy Grace that hath wrought them, and besides thee, there is none else can help me;—I pray thee, therefore that thou wouldst have Compassion on me; as thou hadst on these blind Men:—That the Eyes of my Mind may be opened :——That I may recover the Light, Sin hath deprived me of:—That I may see the great Goodness of God, in sending thee to redeem us :—That I may see the due Reward of Sin in thy Sufferings and Death.—And that I may follow thy Holy Example all the Days of my Life.

St. Mark ii. 17. I came not to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance.

O Lord, who hast called me to Repentance by thy Word, and by this Ordinance ; call me also by thy Grace, and so powerfully, that I may not turn a deaf Ear, and that I may not resist thy Call : I am forced indeed to bring my Sins along with me ; but with a Sense of their Foulness, and with a full Purpose, through thy Grace, of never more returning to them.

St. John vi. 58. He that eateth of this Bread, shall live for ever.

O Merciful Redeemer, who hast made the Felicity of our Souls to depend upon the worthy partaking of this Bread, grant that I may never render myself unworthy of so great a Blessing, or depriy

prive myself of it by my Negligence.—
Make it a Principle of immortal Life to me, by uniting me to thee, and so cleanse me from my Sins, as I may ever be acceptable unto thee.

Exod. xii. 23. When he seeth the Blood (of the Paschal Lamb) on the Door, he will not suffer the Destroyer to come in to smite thee.

O Lord, the true Paschal Lamb, who by thy precious Blood hast
paid the Debt due to the divine Justice, and hast delivered us from the Power of the Destroyer!—Let me never be deprived of an Opportunity of celebrating this Assurance of my Redemption, this saving Mark of thy Almighty Protection, against the Power of the Devil, who is continually seeking whom he may devour.

1 Cor. xi. 28. Let a Man examine himself, and so let him eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup.

THAT I am invited to thy Table, is not that I am worthy, but because Thou, O God, art infinitely good and kind. Pity my Infirmities, which are known to Thee, and accept of my imperfect Obedience to this Command.—I acknowledge my Unworthiness; I place all my Hopes in thy Mercy and Promises in Jesus Christ; I sincerely purpose to lead a Christian Life, —and to use all Diligence to make my Calling and Election sure: With these Purposes I go to thine Altar; trusting in thy Goodness for the Pardon of my Sins, and for an Increase of all those Graces, that are necessary to make me more worthy to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup.

Communion.

When the Minister delivereth the Bread to any one he shall say,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for Thee, preserve thy Body and Soul unto everlasting Life.—Take and eat this in Remembrance that Christ died for Thee, and feed on Him in thy Heart by Faith with Thanksgiving.

Devotions.

Amen.—May it be unto me according to thy Word, a Seal of my Pardon, and a Pledge of my Salvation!

* The solemn Blessing with which the Priest
dismisseth the People after the daily Sacrifice, by God's especial Order, (Numb. vi. 24.) was this:—*The LORD bless thee, and keep thee;
the LORD make his Face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee.—The LORD lift up the Light of his Countenance upon thee, and give thee Peace.*

And with what Devotion they received this Blessing, we are told Ecclus. l. 21.—*The Priest lifted up his Hands over the Congregation, to give the Blessing of the LORD with his Lips;
and they bowed themselves down that they might receive a Blessing from the Most High.*

And lest any one should think too lightly of this Blessing, because pronounced by a poor Mortal like himself, it is added, (*Numb. vi.
27.*) I the Lord will bless him:—Shewing, that the Effect of the Blessing does not depend upon Man, but upon the Ordinance of God, from the Mouth of his own Minister, whom *GOD
bath chosen to bless in the Name of the LORD,*

PRIVATE
SACRAMENT, EITHER

In the CHURCH, or at HOME.

AFTER you have received, and are returned to your Seat, you may (as you have Time) continue your Devotions.

And remember, that now is the proper Season to beg of God the Graces and Blessings you most desire, whether for Yourself,—for your Friends,—or for your Enemies, who should always have a Place in your Prayers.

And be not under any Concern for suitable Words to make known the Desires of your Heart,—God is our Father, and will understand his Children's Meaning, however imperfectly expressed.—You know how the humble Publican was heard, tho' he said no more than than—God be merciful unto me, a Sinner.

The following Scriptures, and the Meditations upon them, may help your Devotions either now, or at any other Time, to obtain the Graces you stand in need of;—To preserve in your Heart a Spirit of Piety;—Or to keep in your Mind the Vows that you have engaged in.

A short Form of Thanksgiving *.

1 Theff. v. 18. In every Thing give Thanks; for this is the Will of God.

O Lord and Father, I am not worthy of the least of all thy Mercies which thou hast shewed thy Servant; neither can I render due Thanks and Praise for them; but, O God, accept of this my Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving.—For this, and for all thy known and unobserved Favours of Nature

* If Christians would but accustom themselves to tender to God the Glory of his Mercies;—To take Notice of, and to give him Thanks for the many Favours, Deliverances, Visitation or Chastisements they every Day meet with they would most surely engage the Divine Goodness and Providence to multiply the Blessings upon them, which they put a Stop by their Ingratitude.

Nature and of Grace, I bless thy good Providence; beseeching Thee to pardon my Ingratitude, and that I have passed so many Occasions without observing, and without acknowledging thy great Goodness to thy unworthy Servant.—For when I consider my Dependance upon Thee,—for my Life, for my Preservation,—for my Redemption,—and for the Means of Grace and Salvation, which thou hast afforded me, I cannot but be very thankful.—As long therefore as I live, I will praise thee.—Glory be to God my Creator,—Glory be to the Lord my Redeemer,—Glory be to the HOLY GHOST my Sanctifier, my Guide, and Comforter,—All Love, all Praise and Glory be to God Most High. Amen.

St. John xvi. 23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my Name, He will give it you.

IN all Humility, O Heavenly Father, I lay Claim to this thy Son's most faithful Promise.—In his Name, and for his Sake I beseech Thee to give me an Heart, truly sensible of his great Love in paying the Debt due, by me, in thy divine Justice; and grant that that the Merits of his Death and Sacrifice may not be lost upon me.

Give me a saving Faith and Knowledge;—A sincere Love for thee, and for thy holy Word;—An hearty Desire to please thee;—A Fear of offending Thee:—A Zeal for thy Glory; and a great Regard for every Thing that belongs to thee.

Give me such a Love for my Neighbour as thou hast commanded: a due Regard for my Betters, and an utter Abhorrence of all manner of Fraud, Injustice and Wrong.

Give me a tender Conscience, a meek and quiet Spirit, a charitable, an humble, and a contented Mind.

Give me a just Sense of my own Infirmities, a Dread of sensual Pleasures, a Power over my Appetites, and a Fear of the World and its Idols.

Leave me not to my own Guidance.—Keep me from Pride, and from presumptuous Sin;—From wicked Principles, and wicked Company; and from the Vices of the Age, and of the Place of my Residence.

Make me ever mindful of my latter End, and of the Account I must one Day give of my Life, and of the Talents, with which thou hast or shalt intrust me.—And grant that I may lead

St. Luke xxiv. 26. Ought not Christ to have suffered these Things, and to enter into his Glory?

IT was necessary for Thee, O Christ, to suffer, because Thou tookest upon Thee to answer for Sinners; and to shew us what Treatment our Sins deserve. O make my Sufferings in this Life, in Union with thine, acceptable to God; and enable me to bear them, as Thou didst, with Patience and Resignation, this being the only Way to Glory. Amen.

2 Cor. v. 15. Christ died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them.

FROM this Moment, O Christ, I consecrate that Life to Thee, which Thou hast redeemed from the Slavery of Sin and Satan, by thy most precious Blood. Fortify my Soul, I beseech Thee, against all the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, by the Remembrance of this thy Love; that I may live to Thee, and to the Glory of God. Amen.

2 Cor. vi. 16. Ye are the Temple of the living God. As God hath said I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my People.

MAKE me, O God, truly sensible of the great Honour and Blessing, of being the Habitation of thy good Spirit; of the Holiness required of me, and of the great Danger of profaning a Temple consecrated to Thee.— Make me worthy of thy continual Abode and Presence. Take Possession of my Heart and Soul; and let me know that thou dwellest in me, by the Fruits of thy Spirit. Amen.

Heb. xii. 1, 2. Let us run with Patience the Race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, &c.

GRANT, O God, that I may bear all the Troubles of this Life with a meek and patient Spirit, without repining at what thou shalt appoint, for the Punishment of Sin, and for the Salvation of the Sinner. I will reflect on thy State, O Lord, when thou stoodest in the Place of Sinners, and with Patience didst bear the Scorn, the Indignities, the unrighteous Judgment, the miserable Death of the Cross: Grant that these, thy Grace, may so influence my Conscience that I never more offend. Amen.

St. Luke xxxiii. 41. We receive the due Reward of our Deeds: but this Man hath done Nothing amiss.

I Confess, O God, with this Malefactor, That whatever I suffer in this Life, I suffer most justly for my Sins: And therefore, with the Submission of a penitent Criminal, under the righteous Sentence of Death, I offer my Life a Sacrifice of Obedience to thy divine Justice, in Union with that of my Saviour's, at what Time, and in what Manner to Thee shall seem meet; trusting in the Merits of my Redeemer at the Hour of Death, and in the Day of Judgment. Amen.

St. Luke xv. 6. I have found my Sheep which was lost.

O Good Shepherd, I thank Thee for that tender Care and Concern for thy lost Sheep.—I had, indeed, been for ever lost, had not thy Love sought and found me, when I was astray: For thy Goodness sake, keep me for the Time to come from wandering from thy Fold. Amen.

St. Luke xi. 13. Your Heavenly Father will give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him.

O LORD, who hast made known to us another Death, besides that which separates our Souls from our Bodies, let thy Grace and Mercy deliver me me from the bitter Pains of eternal Death. Amen.

St. Matt. xi. 29. Learn of me ; for I am meek and lowly in Heart, and ye shall find Rest unto your Souls.

O Heavenly Master and Pattern, how am I astonished, when I consider thy Humility, thy Poverty, thy Meekness, thy Resignation in the midst of Injuries, Oppression, and Wrongs ! It must be thy almighty Grace, which must enable me to follow thy Example, and submit to this Way of Peace, to which our Nature is so averse : For this Grace I now pray, thro' the Merits and Mediation of thy Son. Amen.

St. Luke xxiii. 34. Jesus said, Father, forgive them ; for they know not what they do.

WE do not indeed consider what we do, when we provoke that Justice, which could not be appeased, but by the Death of the Son of God.-- If I have Enemies, O God, I beseech Thee for them after this Example, not for Judgment and Vengeance, but for Mercy ; for their Pardon, and for their eternal Happiness. Amen.

St. Luke

St. Luke xiii. 26, 27. Then shall ye say, We have eaten and drank in thy Presence, &c.—But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not; depart from me, all ye Workers of Iniquity, &c.

LET me not depart from thy Table and Presence, O Lord, without the Assistance of thy Grace to lead a godly and a Christian Life,—That I may escape this terrible and just Judgment, to be passed upon all those, who enjoy the Means of Grace and Salvation, without being improved by them, but continue to lead unchristian Lives. Amen.

St. John i. 12. As many as received him, to them gave he Power (and Right) to become the Sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name.

I Will not live in Sin; knowing, O God, that I am accounted thine.—O Lord, who hast obtained for us this mighty Privilege, give me Grace to live, as becomes the Child of so great, so good, so holy a Father;—That I may never abuse this Mercy, nor forfeit the Right of the Inheritance of the Children of God, by Infidelity, or Disobedience to the Commands of my Heavenly Father. Amen.

St.

St. John xiv. 27. My Peace I leave with you, my Peace I give unto you.

IT must be thy Spirit, O Prince of Peace, that must put us into Possession of this thy last and dying Legacy. O give me this Peace, which the World cannot give:—Which passeth all Understanding; The Peace and Pleasure of being in the Favour of God;—And that I may possess my Soul in Peace, in the Midst of the Temptations, and Troubles, and Allurements of this present evil World. And let this Peace, which, thou hast purchased with thy precious Blood, be with me, and with thy whole Church evermore. Amen.

Concerning

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION.

THE * Church, for the Comfort and Advantage of such Christians, as thro' any just Impediment, are hindered from receiving the Lord's Supper, (in the Manner she has appointed, that is, from the Hands of Christ's own Ministers)

* See the second Rubrick after the Office of the Communion of the Sick.

Ministers) hath given us this Instruction.

*That if we do truly repent of our Sin ;
 " — Have a lively Faith in God's Mercy
 " thro' Christ, with a thankful Remem" brance of his Death, &c. we do eat
 " and drink the Body and Blood of Christ
 " profitably, and to our Soul's Health,
 " although we do not receive the Sa" crament with our Mouth."*

They, who composed this Rubrick, had, it is very probable, an Eye to the daily Sacrifice, which under the Law of Moses was offered for the whole People of Israel ; at which all such pious Persons, who could not possibly be present, yet offered their daily Prayers to God in Union of Spirit, and in Virtue of that Sacrifice offered in the Temple, no Doubt of it, were accepted of God.

Now forasmuch as very many pious Souls do labour under this sad Impediment, especially in many Country Churches, where this Sacrament is but too seldom administered : To supply this Defect, some such Help as the following may be made use of, on the Lord's Day, or on any other Holy day, in order to preserve in our Minds—the Memorial of our Redemption,—To improve our grateful Affections towards our Redeemer,—To keep up a continual Correspondence with Heaven,—To preserve in us a Spirit of Piety, Devotion, and Charity, that we may always be prepared to receive the Lord's Supper, whenever we shall have an Opportunity of doing it in Publick, as a Publick and solemn Acknowledgment of our being in Communion with Christ, and with every Member of the Church of Christ, and which no good Christian will neglect; on any Pretence of Spiritual Communion.
 N respondence

* St. Luke xxii. 19. Do this in Remembrance of me.

O Merciful Saviour, I will, through thy Assistance, do this in Remembrance of thee, and in Obedience to thy Command, as well as I am able.

I do therefore this good Day join, in Desire and Spirit, with every christian Congregation in the World, which truly celebrateth this holy Mystery.

With

* We do not want Examples for recommending this SPIRITUAL COMMUNION The learned and pious Bishop TAYLOR;—The worthy and ingenious Author of the Unbloody Sacrifice;—The devout Author of the Spiritual Combat;—Bishop Patrick, in his Advice to a Friend, &c. have proposed some such Help as this, for the Use and Comfort of those devout Souls, who are deprived of this holy Sacrament in the Church. And to those we are indebted for this Intimation, &c.

With them I join in giving my devoutest Thanks to thy Almighty Father, and our gracious God, who did not overlook lost Mankind, but sent Thee, his only Son, to redeem us.

With them I call to Remembrance what Thou hast done and suffered for us ;—Thy Incarnation,—thy laborious Life, thy bitter Passion,—thy Death and Resurrection,—The great Deliverance Thou hast thereby wrought for all Mankind ; and the Obligations Thou hast laid upon us.

I acknowledge and receive Thee, O Lord, as our heavenly Teacher ;—as our Example and Pattern ; as our only Mediator and Advocate with God :—and as the sovereign Judge of all Mankind.

With thy Church I join in pleading the Merits of thy all-sufficient Sacrifice with thy eternal Father.——I rely upon that Sacrifice for the Pardon of all my Sins ;—for the Assistance of the Divine Grace ;—for Deliverance from the Corruption of my own Nature, and from the Malice and Snares of the Devil ; for the Fellowship of the Holy Ghost,—and for a blessed Resurrection, the Lord Almighty, for thy Sake, being reconciled unto me.

I devote my Spirit, Soul and Body, to Thee and to thy Service : beseeching Thee to give me Grace, never wilfully to depart from thy Laws.

I join with Thy Church, and plead the Merits of thy Sacrifice for all Estates and Conditions of Men ; that none may deprive themselves of that Happiness, which thou hast purchased by thy Death :—For all Christian Kings and Governors ;—For all Bishops and Pastors, that they may preserve the sacred Rites committed to their Trust ;—for all that strive to propagate thy Gospel ; for a primitive Zeal in all that fear thy Name ;—for all that sit in Darkness, are in Error, or are destitute of necessary Means of Instruction ;—for all that sincerely seek the Truth ;—for all Sinners, that they may have Grace and Strength to break their Bonds ;—for all that are in Adversity ; for all that suffer wrongfully, or are deprived of their just Rights ;—for all that are in Pain of Body, or Anguish of Mind and Spirit ; for all that are tempted, or in Danger of falling into Despair ;—for all that are in Slavery, under Persecution, in Prison, or in Poverty—for all Persons and Places in

WHEN we consider the Time Christians are taught to say this Prayer, we shall have Reason to fear that too many continue to repeat it all their Lives, with as little Consideration, Understanding and Devotion, as they first learned it.

This will make a short and plain Paraphrase on this Prayer, both useful and acceptable to such, as desire to understand what they pray for.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

EXPLAINED.

Our Father, which art in Heaven.

I Beseech Thee, O Heavenly Father, not for myself only, but for all thy Children,—That we may all live worthy of the Relation we bear to Thee : That we may not sin, knowing that we are accounted thine ; nor wilfully offend so great, so good, so tender a Father. —But that we may love Thee, and fear Thee, not as Slaves, but as Children ; That we may put our whole Trust in Thee, and depend upon thy infinite Power, Wisdom, Goodness and Promise to take care of us :—That we may leave it to Thee to chuse what is best for us ; and bear with Patience and Resignation all thy fatherly Corrections ; —And that we may serve Thee with Comfort and Pleasure all our Days, in Hopes of the Inheritance, which Thou hast promised thy obedient Children.

Hallowed

Hallowed be thy Name.

THOU art worthy, O Lord, to receive Glory, and Honour, and Power; for Thou hast created all Things, and all thy Works praise Thee. — Fill our Hearts, O God, with a Zeal for thy Glory, that we may do Thee Honour, by leading holy Lives, and by paying a great Regard for every Thing that belongs to Thee; — Thy Name, thy Day, thy House, thy Ordinances, and thy Ministers; — And that others, seeing our good Works, may glorify our Father, which is in Heaven.

Thy Kingdom come.

INlarge thy Kingdom, O God, and deliver the World from the Dominion and Tyranny of Satan, that the Kingdoms of the Earth may become the Kingdoms of Jesus Christ. — Hasten the Time, which thy Spirit hath foretold, when all Nations, whom thou hast made, shall worship Thee and glorify thy Name. — Bless the good Endeavours of those, that strive to propagate the Gospel of thy Kingdom; and prepare the Hearts of all Men to receive it. — May all such, as own Thee for their King, become thy faithful Subjects — Vouchsafe to reign in our Hearts, and subdue our Wills entirely to thine;

—and prepare us, by thy good Spirit,
for the Kingdom of Glory.

Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven.

DIspose of me, and all thy Children, O
Lord and Father, to submit cheerfully to whatever thy Providence shall order for us:—Hearken not to the corrupt Desires of our Hearts, but to the Voice of thy own Wisdom, Goodness, and Mercy.—Give us a true Knowledge of our Duty, and a Heart disposed to close with thy Will, whenever it shall be made known to us, and to perform it with Pleasure.—Subdue in us whatever is contrary to thy holy Will, that thro' thy Grace, we may at last become perfect, as our heavenly Pattern is.

Give us this Day our daily Bread.

WE look up unto, and depend upon, Thee, O Heavenly Father, for all the Necessaries and Conveniencies
of this present Life.—And may our bodily Wants engage us to go daily to the Throne of Grace for the Wants of our Souls!—Let thy Blessing accompany our honest Endeavours, and keep us from all unjust Ways of bettering our Condition.—Give us Grace to impart to such as are in Want, of what Thou shalt

shalt give us more than our daily Bread;
and with all thy other Favours, give us, we beseech Thee, the Blessing of a thankful and contented Mind.

And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us.

Forgive us those Sins, O heavenly Father, which separate us from Thee:—Forgive us every Day of our Lives; for every Day we stand in need of Pardon:—Give me and all Christians a forgiving Temper, that we may fulfil this Condition of our Pardon.—
Thou art good and merciful in forgiving us; grant we may be so to others, remembering our own Infirmities. And may we all live in the same charitable Temper, in which we hope and desire to die.

And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil.

O God and Father, who hatest Iniquity, and knowest our Infirmities, leave us not to the Malice and Power of the Evil one, (the Devil,) to deal with us as he pleaseth;—nor to ourselves, nor to our own corrupt Hearts and Lusts, lest we rashly run into Temptation.—Keep us out of the way of Temptations, and under the Protection

146 The Lord's Prayer, &c.

tection of thy good Spirit :—Suffer us not to be surpris'd by them, nor tempted above what we are able to bear.—Give us grace to resist them, and to watch and pray daily, that we enter not into Temptation.

For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever, Amen.

THE whole Creation is thine, and under thy Government—Thine is the Power ; thou canst do whatever we pray for :—Thou canst cause thy Name to be sanctified in all the Earth, and set up thy Kingdom in all the World, and in all our Hearts :—Thou canst cause thy Will to be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven ; and incline us all to submit to it :—Thou canst give us all Things needful both for our Souls, and for our Bodies :—Thou, and Thou alone, canst forgive us our Sins, and dispose us to forgive one another :—Thou canst secure us in the Day of Temptation, and deliver us from the Power of the Devil :—To Thee, to Thee alone, be the Glory to all Eternity. Amen.

For a F A M I L Y.

Let some one of the Family, that can read, say devoutly what followeth, the rest attending.

THE Lord hath brought us safe to the Beginning of this Day; let us therefore give Thanks for this, and for all his Mercies.

Let us pray, that we may live in the Fear of God, and continue in Love and Charity with our Neighbours.

That his Holy Spirit may direct and rule our Hearts, teaching us what we ought to do, and what to avoid.

That the Grace of God may ever be with us, to support us in all Dangers, and carry us through all Temptations.

That the Lord may bless all our honest Endeavours, and make us content with what his Providence shall order for us.

And that we may continue his faithful Servants this Day, and unto our Lives' End.

For

For all which Blessings let us devoutly pray.

Then all devoutly kneeling, let one say :

O GOD, by whom the whole World is governed and preserved, we give Thee humble Thanks for thy Fatherly Care over us ; beseeching Thee to make us truly sensible of thy Mercies, and thankful for them.

Give us Grace, that we may walk as in thy Sight, having Respect to our Ways ; and fearing to offend Thee, may never fall into the Sins we have repented of.

Enable us to resist the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil ; —To follow the Motions of thy good Spirit ; —To be serious and holy in our Lives ; true and just in our Dealings ; watchful over our Thoughts, Words, and Actions ; diligent in our Business ; And temperate in all Things.

May thy Blessings be upon our Persons, —upon our Labours, —upon our Substance, and upon all that belongs to us !

Give us Grace, that we may honestly improve all the Talents thou hast committed to our Trust : —And that no worldly Business, no worldly Pleasures, may may divert us from the Thoughts of the Life to come.

Make us sensible and thankful for all thy Favours,——and mindful of the Wants of others.

By thy mighty Power defend us in all the Assaults of our Enemies: And grant that this Day we fall into no Sin, neither run into any Kind of Danger; but that all our Doings may be ordered by thy Governance, to do always that, which is righteous in thy Sight.

May our gracious God give us what is needful for us, and Grace not to abuse his Favours; and, withal, give us contented Minds!

Give us in this World the Knowledge of his Truth, and in the World to come Life everlasting! Amen.

HEAR us, O God, not according to our weak Understanding, but according to the full Meaning of that Form of Prayer, which Jesus Christ hath taught us;

OUR Father, which art in Heaven; hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation. But deliver us from Evil; For thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Love of God, and the Fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.

On Sunday Morning, let the following Prayer be added to your daily Prayers.

O LORD, who hast consecrated this good Day to thy Service, give us Grace so to observe it, that it may be the Beginning of a happy Week to us; and that none of thy Judgments may fall upon us for profaning it. Fix in our Hearts this great Truth, that here we have no abiding Place, that we may seriously and timely provide for another Life; and grant that this great Concern may make us very desirous to learn our Duty, and to do what thou requirest of us. And blessed be God that we have Places of Worship consecrated to Thee to go to; that we have Time to serve our Creator; that we have Pastors to teach us. The Lord prosper their Labours, and give us Grace to profit by them; that the and we may enjoy an everlasting Sabbath with thy Saints in Heaven, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

to the Evening of this Day: and we are so much nearer our latter End.

Let us seriously consider this, and pray God to fit us for the Hour of Death.

Let us with penitent Hearts beseech him to pardon our Sins; and to deliver us from the Evils we have justly deserved.

Let us resolve to amend where we have done amiss, and pray God that his Grace may ever be with us.

And that we may be safe under his Protection, who alone can defend us from the Powers of Darkness.

For all which Blessings let us devoutly pray.

Then all devoutly kneeling, let him say
O LORD and heavenly Father,
we acknowledge thy great Good-

The merciful God pardon our Offences; correct and amend what is amiss in us, that, as we grow in Years, we may grow in Grace; and the nearer we come to our latter End, may be the better prepared for it.

In the midst of Life we are in Death, Lord, grant that these Thoughts may make us careful how we live, that we may escape the bitter Pains of eternal Death.

Take from us all Ignorance, Hardness of Heart, and too much Carefulness for the Things of this Life.

Make us an Household fearing God, Submitting ourselves to thy good Pleasure, and putting our whole Trust in thy Mercy.

May God, whose Kingdom ruleth over all, bless our gracious King and such as are put in Authority under Him, that they may govern with Truth and Justice, and that we, whose Duty it is to obey, may do it for Conscience sake.

Grant that true Religion and Piety may be secured and countenanced amongst us; and that Impiety, Profaneness and Infidelity may effectually be discouraged.

Continue to us, and to all the Reformed Church, the Means of Grace and Salvation. Cause that the saving Truths of the Gospel may be received in all the World, and that Christians may not content themselves with Shadows of Religion, but endeavour after that Holiness, without which no Man must see the Lord.

Take into thy Protection, O most gracious God, all those, that thou hast been pleased to set as a Watch over our Souls, and for which they must give an Account; that they may do it with Joy. We commend unto thy tender Compassion all that are in Error, and sincerely seek the Truth: All such as are destitute of necessary Means of Instruction;—All that are engaged in sinful Courses, that they may have Grace and Strength to break their Bonds:—All that labour under Trials and Afflictions:—All sick and dying Persons, that they may omit Nothing, necessary to make their Peace with Thee before they die:—And all such as never pray for themselves, that they may see, before it be too late, the Danger of living without God in the World. A Almighty God, by whom all Things were made, and are preserved, give us Hearts to know, and Grace to consider this, that we may cheerfully commit ourselves, and all that belongs to us to thy merciful Care, that we may ever look to Thee for what we want; be thankful for all thy Favours; never resist thy Dealings with with us, or neglect the Means of Grace which thy Providence affords us.—

Blessed be God, who giveth us what is ever best for us; who keepeth us from Dangers, and hath provided for us better than all our Works can deserve. The good Lord make us mindful of our Duty, as we often hear how we ought to walk, and that to please God, we may continue to do so unto our Lives' End, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS for PARTICULAR PERSONS, both MORNING and EVENING.

In the MORNING.

Consider the Danger of going into an evil World, and then you will never fail to pray for the Blessing, Protection, and Grace of God, every Morning of your Life.

The P R A Y E R.

Pf. cxvi. WHAT shall I render unto the Lord, for his Mercies renewed unto me every Morning?—I will offer the Sacrifice of Thanksgiving, and pay my Vows unto the Most High.

O 2

And

And may God accept of my most hearty Thanks for my Preservation and Refreshment, and for all the Blessings of the Night past, and of my whole Life!

Possess my Soul, gracious God, with such a Sense of this thy Goodness, and of my Dependance upon Thee for Life, and Healib, and Prosperity, and Comfort, that it may be my Delight, as it is my Duty and Interest, to serve and obey Thee.

And that I may do this with a quiet Mind, forgive me the Sins of which my Conscience is afraid, and avert the Judgments which I have justly deserved.

Give me Grace, that I may continue in thy Fear all the Day long, and may live and act as having Thee, O God, the constant Witness of my Conduct; and that it may be the Purpose of my Soul never to offend Thee wilfully.

May thy restraining Grace preserve me from the Temptations of an evil World, from the Frailty and Corruption of my own Nature, and from the evil Principles and Practices of the Age I live in!

Possess my Heart with a sincere Love for Thee, and for all Mankind; and grant that I may have this comfortable and sure Proof of thy Love abiding in me, that I study to please Thee, and to keep thy Commandments. Give

Give me a tender Compassion for the Wants and Miseries of my Neighbour, that thou mayest have Compassion upon me, O God.

In all thy Ways I do acknowledge Thee. Do thou, O Lord, direct my Paths, and teach me to guide my Affairs, my Designs, my Words, and Actions with Charity, Discretion, Justice, and Piety.

Shew me the Way I should walk in, and give me Grace to follow the Conduct of thy good Spirit, that I may do my Duty in that State of Life, in which thy Providence has placed me.

Let me ever remember, that the Night cometh, when no Man can work; and that now is the Time, in which to provide for Eternity.

Grant, gracious God, that no worldly Pleasures, no worldly Business may ever make me lose the Sight of Death, or forget the Dangers that surround us.

Fill my Heart with a Dread of the Judgments prepared for impenitent Sinners, and my Soul with a Sense of the Blessings, which will be the sure Reward of all that love Thee, and obey thy Laws.

Hear me, O Heavenly Father, not according to my imperfect Petitions, but according to the full Meaning of that holy Prayer, which thy beloved Son hath taught us.

Our

good and gracious Providence, most earnestly beseeching him to pardon my Offences of the Day past, and to grant, that they may never rise up in Judgment against me.

Lord, the Frailty of Man without Thee cannot but fail : In all Temptations, therefore, I beseech Thee to succour me, that no Sin may ever get the Dominion over me.

Give me a salutary Dread of the Corruption of my own Heart ; make me truly sensible of the End of Sin, and mindful of my own Infirmities and Backslidings.

Vouchsafe unto all Sinners a true Sense of their unhappy State, a Fear of thy Judgments, with Grace and Strength to break their Bonds.

Enlighten my Soul with saving Truth ;——Correct me in Mercy, when I go astray. Make me ever mindful of my latter End, and fix in my Heart a lively Sense of the Happiness and Misery of the World to come.

May the Thoughts of Death mortify in me all Pride and Covetousness, and a Love for this World ! And may my firm Belief of a Judgment to come, make me ever careful to please Thee, my Lord and Judge, that I may find Mercy at that Day !

Grant

Grant that I may lie down to sleep with the same charitable and forgiving Temper, in which I desire and hope to die.

And may the Almighty God take me, and all that belongs to me, under his gracious and powerful Protection! May he give his Angels Charge concerning us, and keep us in perpetual Peace and Safety, through Jesus Christ our Lord!

St. John xvi. 23. Verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my Name, he will give it you.

In thy Name, O Lord, and in the full Meaning of the Words thou hast taught us, I pray God, for thy Sake, to hear me, and to give me what is most convenient for me.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation: But deliver us from Evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
